Offence may form the basis of multiple orders

105. The fact that a preservation of property order or a forfeiture order has been made on the basis of a money laundering or terrorist funding offence under this Act in which a specific person has been involved does not prevent the making of another preservation of property orders or forfeiture orders on the basis of the same offence.

Application of part to deceased estates

106. (1) Any notice authorized or required to be given to a person under this Part is in the case of deceased person, sufficiently given to the executor of that person's estate.

- (a) in respect of property which forms part of deceased estate; and
- (b) on evidence adduced concerning the activities of a person who is deceased.

Effect of death of joint owner of preserved property

107. (1) If a person has an interest in property as joint owner of the property the person's death after a preservation of property order is made in respect of the interest does not, while the order is in force, operate to vest the interest in the surviving joint owner or owners and the preservation of property order continues to apply to the interest as if the person had not died.

(2) A forfeiture order made in respect of that interest applies as if the order took effect in relation to the interest immediately before the person died.
