c. 102.

An Act to continue, until Eight Months after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, an Act for authorizing Her Majesty to carry into immediate Execution, by Orders in Council, any Treaties for the Suppression of the Slave Trade. [7th August 1840.]

C A P. LXV.

An Act to improve the Practice and extend the Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty of England. [7th August 1840.]

Dean of Arches to sit for Judge of Court of Admiralty in certain Cases.

‘WHEREAS the Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty of England may be in certain respects advantageously extended, and the Practice thereof improved: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Dean of the Arches for the Time being to be Assistant to and to exercise all the Power, Authority, and Jurisdiction, and to have all the Privileges and Protections of the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty with respect to all Suits and Proceedings in the said Court, and that all such Suits and Proceedings, and all Things relating thereto, brought or taking place before the Dean of the Arches, whether the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty be or be not at the same Time sitting or transacting the Business of the same Court, and also during any Vacancy of the Office of Judge of the said Court, shall be of the same Force and Effect in all respects as if the same had been brought or had taken place before the Judge himself, and all such Suits and Proceedings shall be entered and registered as having been brought and as having taken place before the Dean of the Arches sitting for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty.

Advocates, Surrogates, and Proctors of Court of Arches to be admitted in the Court of Admiralty.

II. And be it declared and enacted, That all Persons who now are or at any Time hereafter may be entitled to practise as Advocates in the Court of Arches are and shall be entitled to practise as Advocates in the said High Court of Admiralty; and that all Persons who now are or hereafter may be entitled to act as Surrogates or Proctors in the Court of Arches shall be entitled respectively to practise and act, or to be admitted to practise and act, as the Case may be, as Surrogates and Proctors in the said High Court of Admiralty, according to the Rules and Practice now prevailing and observed or hereafter to be made in and by the said High Court of Admiralty touching the Admission and practising of Advocates, Surrogates, and Proctors in the said Court respectively.

Whenever a Vessel shall be arrested, &c. the Court to have Jurisdiction over Claims of Mortgagees,

III. And be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act, whenever any Ship or Vessel shall be under Arrest by Process issuing from the said High Court of Admiralty, or the Proceeds of any Ship or Vessel having been so arrested shall have been brought into and be in the Registry of the said Court, in either such Case the said Court shall have full Jurisdiction to take cognizance of all Claims and Causes of Action of any Person in respect of any Mortgage of such Ship or Vessel, and to decide any Suit instituted by any such Person in respect of any such Claims or Causes of Action respectively.

IV. And

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Court of Admiralty shall have Jurisdiction to decide all Questions as to the Title to or Ownership of any Ship or Vessel, or the Proceeds thereof remaining in the Registry, arising in any Cause of Possession, Salvage, Damage, Wages, or Bottomry, which shall be instituted in the said Court after the passing of this Act.

V. And be it enacted, That whenever any Award shall have been made by any Justices of the Peace, or by any Person nominated by them, or within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports by any Commissioners, respecting the Amount of Salvage to be paid, or respecting any Claims and Demands for Services or Compensation, which such Justices and Commissioners within their several Jurisdictions are empowered to decide under the Provisions of Two Acts passed in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, for remedying certain Defects relative to the Adjustment of Salvage, or whenever any Sum shall have been voluntarily paid on any such Account of Salvage, Services, or Compensation, it shall be lawful for any Person interested in the Distribution of the Amount awarded or paid to require Distribution to be forthwith made thereof, and the Person or Persons by whom such Amount shall be awarded, or in the Case of voluntary Payment the Person by whom the same shall have been received, shall forthwith proceed to the Distribution thereof among the several Persons entitled thereunto, to be certified in the Case of an Award under the Hand of the Person or Persons by whom such Amount shall be awarded, and an Account of every such Distribution shall be annexed to the Award; and if any Person interested in the Distribution shall think himself aggrieved on account of its not being made according to the Award, or otherwise, it shall be lawful for him, within Fourteen Days after the making of the Award, or Payment of the Money, but not afterwards, to take out a Monition from the said High Court of Admiralty, requiring any Person being in Possession of any Part of the Amount awarded or voluntarily paid to bring in the same, to abide the Judgment of the Court concerning the Distribution thereof; and in the Case of an Award the Person or Persons by whom the Award shall have been made shall, upon Monition, send without Delay to the said High Court of Admiralty a Copy of the Proceedings before him and them, and of the Award, on unstamped Paper, certified under his or their Hand; and the same shall be admitted by the Court as Evidence, and the Amount awarded or voluntarily paid shall be distributed according to the Judgment of the Court.

VI. And be it enacted, That the High Court of Admiralty shall have Jurisdiction to decide all Claims and Demands whatsoever in the Nature of Salvage for Services rendered to or Damage received by any Ship or Sea-going Vessel, or in the Nature of Towage, or for Necessaries supplied to any Foreign Ship or Sea-going Vessel, and to enforce the Payment thereof, whether such Ship or Vessel may have been within the Body of a County, or upon the High Seas, at the Time when the Services were rendered or Damage received, or Necessaries furnished, in respect of which such Claim is made.

VII. And be it enacted, That in any Suit depending in the said High Court of Admiralty the Court (if it shall think fit) may summon before it and examine or cause to be examined Witnesses by Word of Mouth, and either before or after Examination by Deposition, or before a Commissioner, as herein after mentioned; and Notes of such Evidence shall be taken down in Writing by the Judge or Registrar, or by such other Person or Persons, and in such Manner as the Judge of the said Court shall direct.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the said Court may, if it shall think fit, in any such Suit issue One or more Special Commissions to some Person, being an Advocate of the said High Court of Admiralty of not less than Seven Years standing, or a Barrister at Law of not less than Seven Years standing, to take Evidence by Word of Mouth, upon Oath, which every such Commissioner is hereby empowered to administer, at such Time or Times, Place or Places, and as to such Fact or Facts, and in such Manner, Order, and Course, and under such Limitations and Restrictions, and to transmit the same to the Registry of the said Court, in such Form and Manner as in and by the Commission shall be directed; and that such Commissioner shall be attended, and the Witnesses shall be examined, cross-examined, and re-examined by the Parties, their Counsel, Proctors, or Agents, if such Parties, or either of them, shall think fit so to do; and such Commissioner shall, if need be, make a Special Report to the Court touching such Examination, and the Conduct or Absence of any Witness or other Person thereon or relating thereto; and the said High Court of Admiralty is hereby authorized to institute such Proceedings, and make such Order or Orders, upon such Report, as Justice may require, and as may be instituted or made in any Case of Contempt of the said Court.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful in any Suit depending in the said Court of Admiralty for the Judge of the said Court, or for any such Commissioner appointed in pursuance of this Act, to require the Attendance of any Witnesses, and the Production of any Deeds, Evidences, Books, or Writings, by Writ, to be issued by such Judge or Commissioner, in such and the same Form, or as nearly as may be, as that in which a Writ of Subpœna ad testificandum, or of Subpœna duces tecum, is now issued by Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Westminster; and that every Person disobeying any such Writ so to be issued by the said Judge or Commissioner shall be considered as in Contempt of the said High Court of Admiralty, and may be punished for such Contempt in the said Court.

X. And be it enacted, That all the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Amendment of the Law, and better Administration of Justice, with respect to the Admissibility of the Evidence of Witnesses interested on account of the Verdict or Judgment shall extend to the Admissibility of Evidence in any Suit pending in the said Court of Admiralty, and the Entry directed by the said Act to be made on the Record of Judgment shall be made upon the Document containing the final Sentence of the said Court, and shall have the like Effect as the Entry on such Record.

and to decide Questions of Title in all Causes of Possession, &c. Appeals may be made to the Court of Admiralty on Distribution.

Court, in certain Cases, may adjudicate on Claims for Services, &c. although not on the High Seas.

Evidence may be taken vivâ voce in open Court.

Evidence may be taken vivâ voce before a Commissioner.

Attendance of Witnesses and Production of Papers may be compelled by Subpœna.

Provisions of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 42. extended to Court of Admiralty.

Power to direct Issues.

XI. And be it enacted, That in any contested Suit depending in the said Court of Admiralty the said Court shall have Power, if it shall think fit so to do, to direct a Trial by Jury of any Issue or Issues on any Question or Questions of Fact arising in any such Suit, and that the Substance and Form of such Issue or Issues shall be specified by the Judge of the said Court at the Time of directing the same; and if the Parties differ in drawing such Issue or Issues, it shall be referred to the Judge of the said Court to settle the same; and such Trial shall be had before some Judge of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, at the Sittings at Nisi Prius in London or Middlesex, or before some Judge of Assize at Nisi Prius, as to the said Court shall seem fit.

Costs of Issues and Commissions to be in the Discretion of the Court.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Costs of such Issues, or of such Commission as aforesaid, as the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty shall under this Act direct, shall be paid by such Party or Parties, Person or Persons, and be taxed by the Registrar of the said High Court of Admiralty, in such Manner as the said Judge shall direct, and that Payment of such Costs shall be enforced in the same Manner as Costs between Party and Party may be enforced in other Proceedings in the said Court.

Power to direct
new Trials.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the said Court of Admiralty, upon Application to be made within Three Calendar Months after the Trial of any such Issue by any Party concerned, may grant and direct One or more new Trials of any such Issue, and may order such new Trial to take place in the Manner hereinbefore directed with regard to the first Trial of such Issue, and may by Order of the same Court direct such Costs to be paid as to the said Court shall seem fit upon any Application for a new Trial, or upon any new Trial, or second or other new Trial, and may direct by whom and to whom and at what Times and in what Manner such Costs shall be paid.

Granting, &c.
new Trial, Matter of Appeal.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the granting or refusing to grant an Issue, or a new Trial of any such Issue, may be Matter of Appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

ceptions to be allowed on Trials of Issues.

XV. And be it enacted, That at the Trial of any Issue directed by the said High Court of Admiralty, either Party shall have all the like Powers, Rights, and Remedies with respect to Bills of Exceptions as Parties impleaded before Justices may have, by virtue of the Statute made in that Behalf in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of King Edward the First, with respect to Exceptions alleged by them before such Justices, or by any other Statute made in the like Behalf; and every such Bill of Exceptions, sealed with the Seal of the Judge or Judges to whom such Exceptions shall have been made, shall be annexed to the Record of the Trial of the said Issue.

Record of the Issue to be transmitted to the Court of Admiralty.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Record of the said Issue, and of the Verdict therein, shall be transmitted by the Associate or other proper Officer to the Registrar of the said Court of Admiralty; and the Verdict of the Jury upon any such Issue (unless the same shall be set aside) shall be conclusive upon the said Court, and upon all such Persons; and in all further Proceedings in the Cause in which such Fact is found the said Court shall assume such Fact to be as found by the Jury.

Provisions of 2 & 3 W. 4.
c. 92. as to Appeals to apply to Suits
in Court of Admiralty
under this Act.

XVII. And be it enacted, That every Person who, if this Act had not been passed, might have appealed and made Suit to Her Majesty in Council against any Proceeding, Decree, or Sentence of the said High Court of Admiralty under or by virtue of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for transferring the Powers of the High Court of Delegates, both in Ecclesiastical and Maritime Causes, to His Majesty in Council, may in like Manner appeal and make Suits to Her Majesty in Council against the Proceedings, Decrees, and Sentences of the said Court in all Suits instituted and Proceedings had in the same by virtue of the Provisions of this Act, and that all the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act shall apply to all Appeals and Suits against the Proceedings, Decrees, and Sentences of the said Court in Suits instituted and Proceedings had by virtue of the Provisions of this Act; and such Appeals and Suits shall be proceeded in in the Manner and Form provided by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Administration of Justice in His Majesty's Privy Council; and all the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act relating to Appeals and Suits from the High Court of Admiralty shall be applied to Appeals and Suits from the said Court in Suits instituted and Proceedings had by virtue of the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that in any such Appeal the Notes of Evidence taken as herein-before provided by or under the Direction of the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty shall be certified by the said Judge to Her Majesty in Council, and shall be admitted to prove the oral Evidence given in the said Court of Admiralty, and that no Evidence shall be admitted on such Appeal to contradict the Notes of Evidence so taken and certified as aforesaid, but this Proviso shall not enure to prevent the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council from directing Witnesses to be examined and re-examined upon such Facts as to the Committee shall seem fit, in the Manner directed by the last-recited Act.

C A P. LXVI.

An Act to make Provision for the Judge, Registrar, and Marshal of the High Court of Admiralty of England. [7th August 1840.]

‘WHEREAS the present Manner of remunerating the Judge, Registrar, and Marshal of the High Court of Admiralty of England ought not to be continued, and it is expedient to make other Provision for the same, and for defraying the other Expences incidental to the said Court:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That a yearly Salary of Four thousand Pounds shall be paid to the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty, and such Salary shall be payable quarterly, and shall be charged upon and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that any such Judge, after the present Parliament, shall during his Continuance in Office as Judge be incapable of being elected or sitting as a Member of the House of Commons.

Judge of the High Court of Admiralty to be paid by Salary.

Not to sit in future Parliaments.

II. And be it enacted, That an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for regulating the Offices of Registrars of Admiralty and Prize Courts, is hereby repealed, and that the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty shall receive, out of the Fee Fund herein-after mentioned, a yearly Salary of Fourteen hundred Pounds, instead of all Fees, Dues, Perquisites, Emoluments, and Profits heretofore received by or on account of or for such Registrar as aforesaid: Provided always, that in Time of War or other extraordinary Circumstances causing a great Increase of Business in the Office of Registrar of the Court it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, on the Recommendation of the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, to direct that the yearly Salary of the said Registrar be increased to such Sum, not exceeding Two thousand Pounds, as Her Majesty shall be pleased to direct; and such increased Salary shall thenceforward continue to be paid to the said Registrar, instead of his Salary as fixed by this Act, and subject to all the Provisions respecting the same, until Her Majesty shall be pleased to direct that such increased Salary be again reduced.

Repeal of 50 G. 3. c. 118. Registrar to be paid by Salary.

III. And be it enacted, That the Person last before the passing of this Act executing the Duties of Deputy Registrar of the said Court shall be the First Registrar thereof under and by virtue of this Act, and he shall hold the same during his good Behaviour, subject to be removed by the Judge of the said Court for good and reasonable Cause, such Removal to be approved of by the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or by the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, as the Case may be; and every Registrar hereafter to be appointed for the said High Court of Admiralty shall be appointed, and for good and reasonable Cause be removable, by the Judge of the said Court, such Appointment and Removal respectively being subject to the Approbation of the said Lord High Admiral or the said Lords Commissioners, as the Case may be; and every such Registrar shall be taken from, among Proctors practising in the said Court, and of Ten Years standing at least.

Appointment of Registrar.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the first Registrar under and by virtue of this Act, and every Registrar to be hereafter appointed, shall, subject to such Orders as Her Majesty in Council shall from Time to Time make, attend the hearing by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council of all Causes and Appeals which the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty was entitled to attend in Person or by Deputy by virtue of his Office of Registrar of the High Courts of Admiralty, Delegates, and Appeals for Prizes, before the passing of an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the better Administration of Justice in Her Majesty's Privy Council, and likewise shall, subject to any Order of Her Majesty in Council, transact, perform, Registrar shall attend the Privy Council at the Hearing of Causes and Appeals.
