MEAT INDUSTRY ACT, 1981

2. There is hereby established a board to be known as the South West African Meat Board which shall be a body corporate, capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name, and of performing all such acts as are necessary for or incidental to the carrying out of its objects and the performance of its functions and duties in terms of this Act.

3. The objects of the board are to promote the interests of the meat industry of the territory in the territory and elsewhere.

4. (1) The board shall consist of ten members appointed by the Administrator-General, of whom —

(a) six shall be persons selected by the Administrator-General from amongst persons nominated at his request by any body or organization which in his opinion is representative of producers of livestock;

(b) one shall be a person selected by the Administrator-General from amongst persons nominated at his request by any body or organization which in his opinion is representative of manufacturers of meat products;

(c) one shall be a person selected by the Administrator-General from amongst persons nominated at his request by any body or organization which in his opinion is representative of persons trading in meat;

(d) one shall be a marketing agent of any controlled product; and

(e) one shall be an officer employed in any department referred to in the schedule to the Government Service Act, 1980 (Act 2 of 1980).

(2) If any body or organization referred to in subsection (1) does not exist or if any such body or organization fails to nominate in terms of that subsection as many persons as may be required for appointment, the Administrator-General may appoint such persons as he may deem fit to be members of the board in terms of the said subsection.
(3) The Administrator-General may appoint any person he deems fit, to act as a member during the Administrator-General's pleasure in the absence of any member of the board or whenever there is a vacancy in the board.

(4) The board may from time to time appoint not more than three persons to advise the board in the exercise of its powers or the performance of its functions and duties, for such period as it may determine.

5. (1) Any member of the board other than a member referred to in section 4(1)(e) or any acting member shall hold office for such period not exceeding three years as the Administrator-General may determine at the time of appointment.

(2) Any member referred to in section 4(1)(e) shall hold office during the Administrator-General's pleasure.

(3) Any person whose period of office as a member of the board has expired by the effluxion of time shall be eligible for reappointment.

(4) Any member of the board other than a member referred to in section 4(1)(e) and advisers of the board shall receive out of the funds of the board such allowances as the board may from time to time determine with the approval of the Administrator-General.

6. Any member of the board shall vacate office if —

(a) he signifies in writing his wish to resign;

(b) his estate is sequestrated or he compromises with his creditors;

(c) he is detained as a mentally ill person under the provisions of any law;

(d) he is convicted of an offence and sentenced to a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine;

(e) he has been absent from three consecutive meetings of the board without its leave;

(f) the Administrator-General removes him from office for such reasons as in the opinion of the Administrator-General may be good and sufficient reasons;

(g) in the case of a member referred to in section 4(1)(a), he is or becomes involved in the management of any branch of the meat trade.

7. (1) The members of the board shall from time to time elect any member referred to in section 4(1)(a) to be chairman and from amongst the remaining members a deputy-chairman who shall as long as they remain members of the board, hold office for such period of not less than twelve months as the board may determine at the time of their election.
(2) If the chairman is for any reason unable to act as chairman, the deputy chairman shall act in his stead.

(3) If the chairman and the deputy chairman are absent from a meeting of the board or are unable to preside, the members present shall elect one of themselves to preside at such meeting and the person so elected to preside, shall perform all the duties of the chairman during such meeting and until the chairman or deputy chairman resumes his official duties.

8. (1) The first meeting of the board shall be held at such time and place as the Administrator-General may determine and all subsequent meetings shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), be held at such times and places as the board may from time to time determine.

(2) The chairman of the board may at any time and shall at the request of not less than four members of the board convene a special meeting of the board to be held at such time and place as the chairman may determine, which time in the case of any such request shall be within fourteen days from the date on which the request has been made.

(3) The quorum for any meeting of the board shall be six members thereof.

(4) All resolutions at any meeting of the board shall be by majority vote of the members present and in the case of an equality of votes on any matter, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

(5) No resolution passed by the board or act performed on the authority of the board shall be invalid merely by reason of a vacancy in the board or the fact that any person who is not entitled to sit as a member of the board, sat as such a member when the resolution was passed or the act was authorized, if the resolution was passed or the act was authorized by the required majority of the members of the board then present and entitled to sit as members.

9. (1) The board may —

(a) from time to time establish any committee, hereinafter in this Act referred to as an advisory committee, to advise the board in the exercise of any of its powers or the performance of any of its functions or duties and may, for such period as it may determine, appoint such members of the board or other persons thereon as it may deem fit to be members of such committee;

(b) designate any member of any such committee to be chairman thereof:
(c) during the absence of the chairman designate any such member to be acting chairman.

(2) The chairman of the board shall be ex officio a member of any advisory committee.

(3) The board may assign to any advisory committee such of its powers as it may deem fit, but shall not be divested of any powers which it may have assigned to an advisory committee, and may amend or withdraw any decision of any such committee.

(4) Any advisory committee shall exercise its powers and perform its functions and duties in accordance with the directions of the board.

(5) Any member of an advisory committee other than a member of the board, shall receive such allowances as the board may with the approval of the Administrator-General from time to time determine.

(6) Any reference in this Act to the board or the chairman thereof in relation to the exercise of any power of the board assigned to any advisory committee, shall be construed as including a reference to that committee or to the chairman thereof, as the case may be.

(7) The provisions of section 8(5) shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of any advisory committee.

10. (1) The board shall have power —

(a) to employ, subject to the directions of the Administrator-General, officers for the performance of its functions and the achievement of its objects, and to determine the rights, privileges, duties and responsibilities of such officers;

(b) to hire or to acquire otherwise than by way of donation or in like manner, any movable property and to let, hypothecate, sell or otherwise dispose of any movable property so acquired;

(c) with the approval of the Administrator-General to acquire movable property by way of donation or in like manner;

(d) with the approval of the Administrator-General, to hire or acquire immovable property and to let, hypothecate, sell or otherwise dispose of immovable property other than immovable property acquired by way of donation or in like manner;

(e) to use in such manner as the Administrator-General may approve, any property acquired by the board by way of donation or in like manner;

(f) grade, classify, pack or mark or re-grade, re-classify, re-pack or re-mark in accordance with the requirements of this Act any controlled product in or on any premises referred to in paragraph (a), or request the person in charge of any such premises or any employee or agent of such person to cause the said controlled product to be so graded, classified, packed or marked or re-graded, re-classified, re-packed or re-marked;

(g) whenever acting under this section, be accompanied by and avail himself of the services of an assistant or interpreter or any member of any police force.
MEAT INDUSTRY ACT, 1981

Banking accounts

13. (1) The board shall open with a banking institution approved of by the Administrator-General —

(a) a general account in which there shall be deposited all moneys received by the board other than moneys referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) and also all interest derived from the investment of moneys standing to the credit of any account referred to in this section;

(b) in respect of every special levy a special account in which there shall be deposited —

(i) all the special levy moneys concerned;

(ii) moneys accruing to that account from any other source;

(c) a reserve account in which there shall be deposited —

(i) all such moneys as the Administrator-General may from time to time determine;

(ii) moneys accruing to that account from any other source.

(2) Moneys standing to the credit of the accounts referred to in subsection (1) and not required for immediate use or as a reasonable working balance, shall be invested in such manner as the Administrator-General may from time to time determine.

(3) The moneys in the said accounts shall be under the control of the board, which shall, subject to the directions of the Auditor-General, cause proper account to be kept of all moneys received or expended in respect of every account.

(4) The moneys in the general account shall, subject to the directions of the Administrator-General, be utilized for achieving the objects of the board, exercising its powers or performing its functions or duties.

(5) The moneys in any special account shall, subject to the directions of the Administrator-General, be utilized for the purposes for which the special levy concerned has been imposed.

(6) The moneys in the reserve account shall be utilized for such purposes as the Administrator-General may on the recommendation of the board from time to time determine.

(7) The Administrator-General may authorize the board to transfer moneys in any particular banking account of the board to any other such banking account.

14. The financial year of the board shall be the period from 1 April of any year up to and including 31 March of the next succeeding year.
MEAT INDUSTRY ACT, 1981

15. (1) The board shall at such times as the Administrator-General may direct submit to him for approval estimates or additional estimates of income and expenditure during any financial year in respect of every account referred to in section 13.

(2) No expenditure shall be incurred during any financial year except in accordance with the estimates approved by the Administrator-General under subsection (1) in respect of that financial year.

16. (1) The board shall in respect of every account referred to in section 13, cause to be prepared in each year a statement of its income and expenditure during its last preceding financial year and a balance sheet showing its financial position at the end of that financial year.

(2) All accounts of the board and the statement and balance sheet referred to in subsection (1) shall be audited by the Auditor-General.

(3) The board shall in each year within six months after the close of its financial year submit to the Administrator-General, a report in regard to its activities during the last preceding calendar year, together with a copy of the audited statement and balance sheet referred to in subsection (1) in respect of the said financial year.

(4) The said report shall within fourteen days of its release, be laid upon the Tables of the National Assembly, or if the National Assembly is not then in session, on the first day upon which it again assembles.

Levies

17. (1) The Administrator-General may from time to time on the recommendation of the board, by notice in the Official Gazette and with effect from such date as may be mentioned in such notice, impose on a basis so mentioned a general levy or, for any purpose so mentioned, a special levy in respect of any category, class or kind of controlled products, or abolish any such levy or amend the amount or basis thereof.

(2) Any such levy shall be payable to the board in the prescribed manner and at the prescribed times by such category or class of persons as may be mentioned in the said notice or on their behalf by any other category or class of persons so mentioned.

(3) Whenever any levy is paid in terms of this section by any person on behalf of any other person, there shall be paid by the board to such first-mentioned person the prescribed commission in respect of the payment concerned and the amount of the levy may be recovered in the prescribed manner from the said other person by such first-mentioned person.
MEAT INDUSTRY ACT, 1981

18. The Administrator-General may by notice in the Official Gazette prohibit any person or any person of a specified category or class from selling any specified controlled product or any such product of a specified category or class in any specified area or at any specified place or for any specified purpose —

(a) unless it is sold according to specified prescribed grades or classes;

(b) unless it complies with the prescribed standards for the composition thereof and contains the required prescribed ingredients or other substances;

(c) unless it has been packed in a prescribed container and in the prescribed manner;

(d) unless it has been marked in the prescribed manner with the prescribed particulars;

(e) if it contains any prohibited prescribed substance;

(f) if it has been packed in any prohibited prescribed container or manner;

(g) if it has been marked with prohibited prescribed particulars or in a prohibited prescribed manner; or

(h) unless it is sold in accordance and compliance with the conditions of an exemption in writing issued by the Administrator-General or any person authorized by him.

19. The Administrator-General may from time to time, after consultation with the board, by notice in the Official Gazette —

(a) prohibit any person or any person of any category or class from selling or disposing in the territory or elsewhere any specified controlled product or any specified category or class thereof at any price other or lower or higher than a specified price or than a price calculated on a specified basis or from demanding any such price for any such product in the territory or elsewhere;

(b) require any person disposing of the said controlled product or any specified quantity thereof on credit or for a specified amount, to furnish to the board at specified times an invoice containing specified particulars;

(c) require specified persons or persons of a specified category or class to display the prices referred to in paragraph (a) in such manner and form and on such premises as may be specified in the notice.
MEAT INDUSTRY ACT, 1981

20. The Administrator-General may, after consultation with the board, by notice in the Official Gazette —

(a) prohibit the importation or the export from the territory of any controlled product other than stud stock or any category or class thereof;

(b) subject to such conditions as may be mentioned in the notice —

(i) prohibit the said importation or export by any person other than the board;

(ii) prohibit such importation or export except by the holder of a permit issued at the discretion of the board, but subject to the right of appeal to the Administrator-General and in accordance with such conditions as may be stated by the board in such permit.

21. (1) Any person who —

(a) falsely represents himself to be an inspector;

(b) hinders or delays any inspector or any person lawfully accompanying him in the exercise of his powers as inspector;

(c) refuses or fails to reply to the best of his ability to any question lawfully put to him by any inspector in the exercise of his powers, or in reply to any such question makes any statement or representation knowing it to be false or not knowing or believing it to be true;

(d) without the consent in writing of an inspector removes from the place where it has been left by him or tampers with or destroys or makes alterations in or to anything seized by such inspector in the exercise of his powers;

(e) refuses to comply or fails to comply to the best of his ability with any requirement under section 10(1)(k) or 19(b) or (c) or any request under section 12(2)(c) or (f);

(f) performs any act in contravention of any prohibition under section 10(1), 18, 19(a) or 20;

(g) buys or acquires any controlled product from any person selling or supplying it to him in contravention of a prohibition under section 10(1)(a), (p) or (q);

(h) fails to pay any levy referred to in section 17 in the prescribed manner and at the prescribed times; or
MEAT INDUSTRY ACT, 1981

(i) contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding three thousand rand or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(2) If any person is found guilty of any offence for failing to pay any levy, the court convicting him shall at the same time, in addition to any penalty imposed for such offence, order him to pay to the board an amount equal to the amount of the levy still owing by him to the board according to evidence adduced at the trial, whereupon such order shall be executed as if it were an order in civil proceedings.

22. (1) Whenever at the trial of any person charged with any contravention of this Act, the question arises whether or not any person with a particular name —

(a) has furnished to the board any particular information or any particular return or other document within a particular period; or

(b) has paid to the board any particular levy or any portion thereof within any particular period; or

(c) is registered with the board; or

(d) is the holder of any particular permit issued under this Act,

any document in writing purporting to be an affidavit of any person alleging in such affidavit that he is an employee of the board and that no person with the said name has furnished the said information or return or other document to the board within the said period, or has paid the said levy or any portion thereof to the board within the said period, or is registered with the board or is the holder of a particular permit issued under this Act, as the case may be, shall on its mere production at such trial by any person, be prima facie evidence of the facts mentioned therein.

(2) At any trial referred to in subsection (1) a certificate stating the result of any examination, analysis, grading or other classification made by virtue of the provisions of this Act and purporting to have been signed by the person who made the examination, analysis, grading or classification, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts mentioned therein.
23. Any magistrate's court shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, have jurisdiction to make any order or impose any penalty provided for by this Act.

24. (1) The Administrator-General may make regulations not inconsistent with this Act relating to —

(a) the manner of treating, preparation or processing of controlled products for grading or classification;

(b) the persons or officers who are qualified to grade controlled products for the purposes of this Act and the manner in which grading shall take place;

(c) the form and manner of appealing to the Administrator-General against any resolution of the board;

(d) an appeal to the board against the grading or classification of any controlled product and the period and manner in which any such appeal shall be noted;

(e) the manner of taking samples by an inspector for the purposes of this Act;

(f) the method to be adopted and the procedure to be followed by any inspector when inspecting any particular quantity of any controlled product and the percentage thereof deemed to be representative of such quantity for the purposes of inspection;

(g) all matters which shall or may under this Act be prescribed or which the Administrator-General deems it necessary or expedient to prescribe in order to achieve the objects of this Act.

(2) Different regulations may be made in respect of different categories or classes of persons or controlled products or different areas.

25. All assets, liabilities, rights and duties of the Meat Trade Control Board (hereinafter in this Act referred to as the old board) established by the Meat Trade Control Ordinance, 1962 (Ordinance 20 of 1962), shall become the assets, liabilities, rights and duties of the board, and the several banking accounts of the board shall, on such basis as the Administrator-General may determine, be credited with the moneys in the several funds under the control of the old board or accruing to those funds or which would so have accrued if this Act had not been enacted.
Act No. 12, 1981

MEAT INDUSTRY ACT, 1981

(2) Any regulation made or any levy or prohibition imposed or any permit, exemption or certificate issued or any registration or appointment made under any provision of any law repealed by this Act or any regulation made thereunder, which could be made, imposed or issued under a corresponding provision of this Act, shall be deemed to have been made, imposed or issued under the said corresponding provision, and any reference in or in respect of any such regulation, levy, prohibition, permit, exemption, certificate, registration or appointment —

(a) to the old board shall be construed as a reference to the board;

(b) to any law repealed by this Act shall be construed as a reference to this Act;

(c) to the holder of any office shall be construed as a reference to the holder of a similar office under this Act.

27. This Act shall be called the Meat Industry Act, 1981, and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Administrator-General by proclamation in the Official Gazette.
