REGULATIONS FOR THE ADVANCED UNIVERSITY DIPLOMA IN HEALTH PROMOTION, CLINICAL DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT:
NURSING PROFESSIONS ACT, 1993

The Minister of Health and Social Services has under Section 48(h) of the Nursing Professions Act, 1993 (Act No. 30 of 1993), and on the recommendation of the Nursing Board, made the Regulations set out in the Schedule.

SCHEDULEDefinitions

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise indicates, a word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act shall bear that meaning and -

"course" means the course for the Advanced University Diploma in Health Promotion, Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment;

"student" means a person registered for the course; and

"the Act" means the Nursing Professions Act, 1993 (Act No. 30 of 1993).

Conditions for the approval of nursing school

2. (1) The Board may, subject to subregulation (2), in writing approve a nursing school institution to offer or provide any tuition or training with regard to the course if -

- (a) the organisational structure and the facilities for the conduct of teaching and the educational programme at that school are satisfactory in the opinion of the Board;
- (b) a person to be in charge of a school is a registered nurse and midwife; and
- (c) members of the nursing staff who are taking part in the clinical instruction of students are registered nurses and registered midwives.

(2) If it is in the public interest to do so, the Board may on such conditions as it may determine, give the approval referred to in subregulation (1) even if one or more of the conditions referred to in that subregulation have not been complied with.

Requirements for admission to course

3. Any person who wishes to register for the course shall -

- (a) hold a grade 12 or senior certificate or any other equivalent qualification;
- (b) hold an approved diploma in general nursing science and midwifery;
- (c) annually, together with his or her application for registration, furnish proof of his or her current registration as a nurse and midwife with the Board; and
- (d) have at least two years experience as a registered nurse and midwife.

Termination and completion of course

4. (1) The person in charge of a nursing school shall in writing notify the Board -

- (a) if a student for any reason terminates the course before completion;
- (b) if a student is transferred to another nursing school; or
- (c) when a student has successfully completed the course.

(2) A notice referred to in subregulation (1) shall contain a record of the theoretical and clinical instruction undergone by the student concerned and of any examinations passed.

Duration of course

5. (1) The duration of the course shall be one year full time study.

(2) In case of a transfer from one nursing school to another, the course shall either be commenced afresh or continued, depending on the decision of the Board.

Curriculum

6. All the subjects of the curriculum shall be taught at an applied level throughout the course with special emphasis on -

- (a) the ethical foundations of nursing;
- (b) the law governing the practice of nursing, including regulations regarding the conduct of registered nurses and midwives;
- (c) medico-legal risks;
- (d) the social, psychological, cultural and physical relationship in health and disease;
- (e) the preventative, promotive, curative and rehabilitative aspects;
- (f) the basic principles of nursing science;

- (g) microbiology, parasitology and pharmacology;
- (h) practical clinical learning experience obtained throughout the academic year under the guidance of a medical practitioner and the lecturer regarding the estimation, identification, diagnosis, treatment and care of health problems of all systems, covering -
 - (i) paediatrics;
 - (ii) internal medicine;
 - (iii) surgery;
 - (iv) obstetrics;
 - (v) gynaecology.

Examination

- 7. The examination shall consist of -
 - (a) the theory, philosophy and practice of primary health care, consisting of a written paper of three hours and four practical or oral examinations of three hours each as major subject;
 - (b)
 - (i) the history, philosophy and ethics of nursing and midwifery science, consisting of one paper of three hours;
 - (ii) scientific foundations of nursing, consisting of two written papers of three hours each; and
 - (iii) nursing management, consisting of one written paper of three hours and one practical or oral examination of 30 minutes, as ancillary subject.

Lecturer, clinical instruction and practical

8. A student shall throughout the prescribed period for the course receive both theoretical and clinical instruction and undergo practical training in the subjects referred to in regulation 6.

Admission to examination

- 9. In order to be admitted to the examination a student shall -
 - (a) have completed the prescribed period of training for the course by the end of the month in which the examination is held;
 - (b) according to the assessment by the nursing school where the course was followed, be competent and suitable for admission in respect of attitude, approach, insight, knowledge and skills; and
 - (c) on the date of the examination comply with the provisions of regulation 6.

Registration of additional qualifications

10. A student who has passed in the examination shall, if he or she complies with any other requirements relating to registration, be issued by the Board with a certificate of registration of the additional qualification of the Advanced University Diploma in Health Promotion, Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment, without the payment of a fee, provided the notice referred to in regulation 4(1)(c) has been lodged.
