57.(1) Subsections (2) to (4) apply to a company where the memorandum or articles of the company expressly provide that this section shall apply to the company, but not otherwise.

Pre-emptive rights

(2) Before issuing shares that rank or would rank as to voting or distribution rights, or both, equally with or prior to shares already issued by the company, the directors shall offer the shares to existing shareholders in such a manner that, if the offer was accepted by those shareholders, the existing voting or distribution rights, or both, of those shareholders would be maintained.

(5) Subject to its memorandum or articles and section 63, the company shall, on receipt of an instrument of transfer, enter the name of the transferee of the share in the register of members unless the directors resolve to refuse or delay the registration of the transfer for reasons that shall be specified in the resolution.

Refusal to register transfer

63.(1) The directors shall not pass a resolution refusing or delaying the registration of a transfer unless this Act or the memorandum or articles permit them to do so.

(2) Where the directors pass a resolution under subsection (1), the company shall, as soon as practicable, send the transferor and the transferee written notice of the refusal or delay.

(3) Subject to the memorandum or articles of a company, the directors may refuse or delay the registration of a transfer of shares if the transferor has failed to pay an amount due in respect of those shares.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in its memorandum or articles but subject to section 66, a company shall not register a transfer of shares in the company unless a written instrument of transfer as referred to in section 62(1) has been delivered to it.

Loss of instrument of transfer

64. If the directors of a company are satisfied that an instrument of transfer of registered shares has been signed but that the instrument has been lost or destroyed, they may resolve —

Sub-Part IV - Distributions

- (a) the company is able to pay its debts as they become due; and
- (b) the value of the company's assets is greater than the value of its liabilities.

(2) In determining whether the value of a company's assets is greater than the value of its liabilities, the directors —

- (a) shall have regard to —
 - (i) the most recent accounts of the company; and
 - (ii) all other circumstances that the directors know or ought to know affect, or may affect, the value of the company's assets and the value of the company's liabilities; and
- (b) may rely on valuations of assets or estimates of liabilities that are reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) This section applies to cells and cores of protected cell companies as if references to companies were references to cells or cores, as the case may be, of protected cell companies.

Meaning of "distribution"

68.(1) In this Act but subject to the provisions of this Part, "distribution", in relation to a distribution by a company to a member, means —

- (a) the direct or indirect transfer of an asset, other than the company's own shares, to or for the benefit of the member; or
- (b) the incurring of a debt to or for the benefit of a member, in relation to shares held by a shareholder, or to the entitlements to distributions of a member who is not a shareholder, and whether by means of the purchase of an asset, the purchase, redemption or other acquisition of shares, a transfer of indebtedness or otherwise, and includes a dividend.

(2) "Distribution" does not include —

- (b) a distribution of assets to members of a cell of a protected cell company during and for the purposes of a receivership order; or
- (c) a distribution of assets to members of a cell of a protected cell company during and for the purposes of the termination of the cell.

Cellular and non-cellular distributions by protected cell company

71.(1) Subject to section 72 and to any other requirement imposed by the memorandum or articles of the company, the directors of a protected cell company may authorise a distribution in respect of a cell ("cellular distribution") at any time if they are satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the protected cell company will, immediately after the distribution, satisfy the solvency test as it applies by virtue of subsection (2).

(2) In determining whether a protected cell company satisfies the solvency test under subsection (1) for the purpose of making a cellular distribution in respect of a cell, no account is to be taken of —

- (a) the assets and liabilities, attributable to any other cell of the company; or
- (b) non-cellular assets and liabilities of the company.

(3) Subject to section 72 and to any other requirement imposed by the memorandum or articles of the company, the directors of a protected cell company may authorise a distribution in respect of its non-cellular assets and liabilities (a "non-cellular distribution") at any time if they are satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the protected cell company will, immediately after the distribution, satisfy the solvency test as it applies by virtue of subsection (4).

(4) In determining whether a protected cell company satisfies the solvency test under subsection (3) for the purposes of making a non-cellular distribution, no account need be taken of the assets and liabilities of any cell of the protected cell company, except in the respect of any liability arising pursuant to Sub-Part IV of Part XIII by which the protected cell company's non-cellular assets may be utilised to meet any liability attributable to any cell of a protected cell company.

Recovery of distributions made when company did not satisfy solvency test

72.(1) Where a distribution has been made to a member by a company and the company did not, immediately after the distribution, satisfy the solvency test, then the distribution (or the value thereof) may be recovered by the company from the member but only if —

- (a) the member received the distribution or the benefit of the distribution (as the case maybe) other than in good faith and without knowledge of the company's failure to satisfy the solvency test;
- (b) the member's position has not been altered by the member relying on the validity of the distribution; and
- (c) it would not be unfair to require repayment in full or at all.

(2) Where a distribution has been made to a member or members by a company and the company did not, immediately after the distribution, satisfy the solvency test, then, a director who failed to take reasonable steps to ensure that the distribution was made in accordance with section 70, or, in the case of a protected cell company, section 71, shall be personally liable to the company to repay to the company so much of the distribution as is not able to be recovered from members.

(3) If, in an action brought against a director or member under this section, the Court is satisfied that the company could, by making a distribution of a lesser amount, have satisfied the solvency test, the Court may —

- (a) permit the member to retain; or
- (b) relieve the director from liability in respect of, an amount equal to the value of any distribution that could properly have been made.

Sub-Part V Redemption and purchase of own shares

- (a) sections 74, 75 and 76; or
- (b) such other provisions for the redemption, purchase or other acquisition of its own shares as may be specified in its memorandum or articles or in a written agreement between the company and the or each affected shareholder.

Company
may redeem or purchase its own
shares

(2) Where a company may redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares otherwise than in accordance with sections 74, 75 and 76, it may not redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire the shares without the consent of the member whose shares are to be redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired, unless the company is permitted by the memorandum or articles to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire the shares without that consent.

(3) Unless the shares are held as treasury shares in accordance with section 78, any shares acquired by a company are deemed to be cancelled immediately on redemption, purchase or other acquisition.

- (b) if the Redemption Agreement does not include a term to the effect that the Redemption Agreement shall prevail to the extent of any inconsistency with the company's memorandum and articles, the company's memorandum and articles shall prevail.

74.(1) The directors of a company may make an offer to redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire shares issued by the company, if the offer is —

- (a) an offer to all shareholders to redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire shares issued by the company that —

- (i) would, if accepted, leave the relative voting and distribution rights of the shareholders unaffected; and
 - (ii) affords each shareholder a reasonable opportunity to accept the offer; or
 - (b) an offer to one or more shareholders to redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire shares —
 - (i) to which all shareholders have consented in writing; or
 - (ii) that is permitted by the memorandum or articles and is made in accordance with section 75.
- (2) Where an offer is made in accordance with subsection (1)(a) —
 - (a) the offer may also permit the company to redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire additional shares from a shareholder to the extent that another shareholder does not accept the offer or accepts the offer only in part; and
 - (b) if the number of additional shares exceeds the number of shares that the company is entitled to redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire, the number of additional shares shall be reduced rateably.
- (3) This section does not apply to a company to the extent that it is negated, modified or inconsistent with provisions for the redemption, purchase or other acquisition of its own shares specified in —
 - (a) the company's memorandum or articles; or
 - (b) a written agreement between the company and the shareholder.

75.(1) The directors of a company shall not make an offer to one or more shareholders under section 74(1)(b)(ii) unless they have passed a resolution stating that, in their opinion —

(2) A resolution passed under subsection (1) shall set out the reasons for the directors' opinion.

(3) The directors shall not make an offer to one or more shareholders under section 74(1)(b)(ii) if, after the passing of a resolution under subsection (1) and before the making of the offer, they cease to hold the opinions specified in subsection (1).

(4) A shareholder may apply to the Court for an order restraining the proposed purchase, redemption or other acquisition of shares under section 74(1)(b)(ii) on the grounds that —

- (a) the redemption, purchase or other acquisition is not in the best interests of the remaining shareholders; or

(3) Subject to a company's memorandum and articles, a reduction of share capital of a company shall not be subject to confirmation by the Court if the directors of the company pass a resolution approving the reduction if they are satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the company will, immediately after the reduction, satisfy the solvency test.

(4) A resolution of directors passed under subsection (3) shall contain a statement that, in the opinion of the directors, the company will, immediately after the reduction in issued capital, satisfy the solvency test.

(5) Any director who makes a statement under subsection (4) that the company satisfies the solvency without having reasonable grounds for that statement commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding US$25,000.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply in relation to a mutual fund (as defined in the Mutual Fund and Hedge Fund Act) or to any other company which redeems any of its shares under and in accordance with section 76 (Shares redeemed at the option of a shareholder).

- (3) If the proposed reduction of share capital involves either —
- (a) a diminution of liability in respect of any amount unpaid on a share; or
 - (b) the payment to a shareholder of any paid up capital, and in any other case if the Court so directs, subsections (4), (5), and (6) have effect, but subject throughout to subsection (7).
- (4) Every creditor of the company who at the date fixed by the Court is entitled to a debt or claim which if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company is entitled to object to the reduction of share capital.
- (5) The Court shall settle a list of creditors entitled to object, and for that purpose —
- (a) shall ascertain, as far as possible, without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims; and
 - (b) may direct the publication of notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objecting to the reduction of capital.
- (6) If a creditor entered on the list referred to in subsection (5) whose debt or claim is not discharged or has not determined does not consent to the reduction, the Court may dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of the creditor's debt or claim by appropriating (as the Court may direct) the following amount —
- (a) if the company admits the full amount of the debt or claim or, though not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of the debt or claim;
 - (b) if the company does not admit, and is not willing to provide for, the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, then an amount fixed by the Court after an enquiry and adjudication.

(7) If a proposed reduction of share capital involves either the diminution of a liability in respect of unpaid capital or the payment to a shareholder of paid up capital, the Court may, if having regard to any special circumstances of the case it thinks proper to do so, direct that subsections (4) to (6) shall not apply as regards any class or any classes of creditors.

85.(1) The Court, if satisfied with respect to every creditor of the company who under section 84 is entitled to object to the reduction of share capital that either —

Court order confirming reduction

- (a) the creditor's consent to the reduction has been obtained; or
- (b) the creditor's debt or claim has been discharged or has been determined, or has been secured.

may make an order confirming the reduction of share capital on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

(2) Where the Court so orders, it may also make an order requiring the company to publish, as the Court directs, the reasons for reduction of capital or such other information in regard to it as the Court thinks fit with a view to giving proper information to the public and, if the Court thinks fit, the causes which led to the reduction.

86.(1) Where the Court confirms the reduction of a company's share capital, the company shall deliver to the Registrar —

Registration of order and minute of reduction

(3) The Registrar shall register the order and minute, and thereupon the resolution for reducing the share capital as confirmed by the order shall take effect.

(4) The Registrar shall certify the registration of the order and minute and such certificate —

- (a) shall be signed by the Registrar and sealed with the Registrar's seal;
- (b) is conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Act with respect to the reduction of share capital have been complied with, and the company's share capital is as stated in the minute.

(5) The minute when registered is deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the company's memorandum.

Liability of members on reduced
shares

87.(1) In the case of a reduction of share capital, a member of the company, past or present, shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference, if any, between the amount of the share as fixed by the minute and the amount paid or the reduced amount, if any, which is to be deemed to have been paid on the shares.

(2) If any creditor entitled in respect of any debt or claim to object to the reduction of issued share capital is, by reason of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction or of their nature and effect with respect to his debt or claim, not entered on the list of creditors, and after the reduction the company is unable to pay the amount of his debt or claim, then —

- (a) every person who was a member of the company at the date of the registration of the order for reduction and minute shall be liable to contribute for the payment of that debt or claim an amount not exceeding the amount which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before the said date; and

- (b) if the company is wound up, the Court, on the application of any such creditor and proof of his ignorance as aforesaid, may if it thinks fit, settle accordingly a list of persons so liable to contribute, and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories in a winding up.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the contributories among themselves.

- (a) that no party shall seek, whether in any proceedings or by any other means whatsoever or wherever, to make or attempt to make liable any protected assets;
- (b) that if any party succeeds by any means whatsoever or wherever in making liable any protected assets, that party shall be liable to the company to pay a sum equal to the value of the benefit thereby obtained by him; and
- (c) that if any party succeeds in seizing or attaching by any means or otherwise levying execution against any protected assets, that party shall hold those assets or their proceeds on trust for and on behalf of the company and shall keep those assets or proceeds separate and identifiable as such trust property.

- (9) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a protected cell company does not require a cell transfer order to invest, and change investment of, cellular assets or otherwise to make payments or transfers from cellular assets in the ordinary course of the company's business.
- (10) Section 206 shall not apply to a transfer of cellular assets attributable to a cell of a protected cell company made in compliance with this section.

(5) A protected cell company shall, in respect of an arrangement, make such adjustments to its accounting records, including those of or attributable to its cells, as may be necessary or expedient.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt —

- (a) the adjustments referred to in subsection (5) may include the transfer, disposition or attribution of assets, rights and liabilities of the protected cell company —
 - (i) as between any of the company's cells;
 - (ii) as between the core and any of its cells;
 - (iii) as between the company and the core; or
 - (iv) as between the company and any of its cells but without prejudice to the singular legal personality of the company; and

(8) This section has extra-territorial application.

Sub-Part VI - Receivership Orders

240.(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, if in relation to a protected cell company the Court is satisfied —

Receivership orders in relation to cells

- agreement) are or are likely to be insufficient to discharge the claims of creditors in respect of that cell;
- (b) that the making of an administration order in respect of that cell would not be appropriate; and
- (c) that the making of an order under this section would achieve the purposes set out in subsection (3), the Court may make an order under this section (a "receivership order") in respect of that cell.

(2) A receivership order may be made in respect of one or more cells.

in or prior to winding up

338.(1) A creditor, member or the liquidator of a company may apply to the Court for an order under this section if the company has given a preference to any person at any time after the commencement of a period of 6 months immediately preceding the relevant date.

(2) For the purposes of this section —

- (a) a company gives a preference to a person if —
 - (i) that person is one of the company's creditors or is a surety or guarantor for any of the company's debts or other liabilities; and
 - (ii) the company does anything, or permits anything to be done, which improves that person's position in the company's liquidation;
- (b) the relevant date is the earlier of —
 - (i) the date of any application to the Court for the compulsory winding up of the company; or
 - (ii) the date of the passing by the company of any resolution of members for the voluntary winding up of the company.

(3) If on an application under subsection (1) the Court is of opinion that —

- (a) the company was at the time of giving the preference, or became as a result of giving the preference, insolvent within the meaning of section 299; and
- (b) the company was influenced in deciding to give a preference by a desire to produce the effect mentioned in subsection (2)(a)(ii), the Court may make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been if the company had not given the preference.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3), but subject to subsection (5), an order under this section may —

- (a) require any property transferred in connection with the giving of the preference to be vested in the company;
- (b) require any property to be so vested if it represents in any person's hands the application of either the proceeds of sale of property so transferred or money so transferred;
- (c) release or discharge (in whole or in part) any security given by the company;
- (d) require any person to pay, in respect of benefits received by him from the company, such sums to the liquidator as the Court may direct;
- (e) provide for any surety or guarantor whose obligations to any person were released, reduced or discharged by the giving of the preference to be under such new or revived obligations to that person as the Court thinks fit;

- (g) provide for the extent to which any person whose property is vested by the order in the company, or on whom obligations are imposed by the order, is to be able to claim in the liquidation for debts or other liabilities which arose from, or were released, reduced or discharged by, the giving of the preference.

(5) An order under this section may affect the property of or impose obligations on any person, whether or not he is the person to whom the preference was given, but shall not —

- (a) prejudice any interest in property acquired from a person other than the company in good faith, for value and without notice of the existence of circumstances enabling an order under this section to be applied for;
- (b) prejudice an interest deriving from such an interest; or
- (c) require a person to pay a sum to the liquidator in respect of a benefit received by that person at a time when he was not a creditor of the company, and received by him in good faith, for value and without notice of the existence of circumstances enabling an order under this section to be applied for.

(6) In the application of this section to any case where the person given a preference is connected with the company —

- (a) the reference in subsection (1) to 6 months is to be read as a reference to 2 years; and
- (b) the company is presumed, unless the contrary is shown, to have been influenced in deciding to give the preference by such desire as is mentioned in subsection (3)(b).

(7) For the purposes of subsection (6) a person is “connected” with the company at any time if the company knew or ought to have known at that time that—

- (a) that person had any significant direct or indirect proprietary, financial or other interest in or connection with the company (other than as a creditor, surety or guarantee), or
- (b) another person had any such interest in or connection with both that person and the company.

(8) The fact that something is done or permitted pursuant to a Court order does not, without more, prevent it from being a preference.

(9) This section is without prejudice to any other remedy.
