(4) Without prejudice to the provisions of subrule (3), the applicant may furnish any other relevant information in support of his application.

(5) The Chief Justice may, in his discretion, dispense with any of the requirements prescribed under subrule (3) or require the applicant to furnish any other relevant information as it may be necessary for the purpose of scrutinizing the application.

Scrutiny of applications

5.-(1) Upon receipt of an application, the Chief Justice may direct the Council to scrutinise the application and make recommendations on the eligibility of the applicant for exemption.

(2) Upon receipt of directives from the Chief Justice, the Council shall-

- (a) verify and satisfy itself on the completeness of the application;
- (b) examine eligibility of the applicant; and
- (c) perform any other duty as the Chief Justice may direct.

(3) Upon completion of scrutiny, the Council shall submit its recommendations in writing to the Chief Justice.

Determination of application

6. Upon receipt of the recommendations from the Council, the Chief Justice may-

- (a) if satisfied that the applicant is eligible for exemption, grant the application and notify or cause the applicant to be notified in writing on the exemption; or
- (b) if not satisfied with the application-
 - (i) require the applicant to furnish further particulars for his consideration; or
 - (ii) refuse the application and notify or cause the applicant to be notified in writing of the refusal and reasons thereof.
