(2) The Commission may cause a witness to be examined on oath or affirmation which shall be administered by the Secretary or by any other person authorised by the Commission.

18. Any person, other than a person who is notified to appear before the Commission solely in connection with his or her application for appointment to the Education Service, who, without reasonable cause fails to do so, or who wilfully fails to produce any document in his or her possession when required to do so by the Commission under section 17 of this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or imprisonment not exceeding three months or both.

19. (1) Any person summoned by and appearing before the Commission as a witness is entitled to be paid by way of reimbursement of his or her expenses, such allowances as are payable to a witness appearing before the High Court as a witness in criminal proceedings.

(2) Any other person invited by the Commission to attend any meeting of the Commission to assist the Commission may be paid by the Commission such allowances as the Commission may consider reasonable.

20. A witness before the Commission shall have the same immunities and privileges as if he or she were a witness before the High Court.
21. (1) Any person who otherwise than in the course of his or her duty, directly or indirectly by himself or herself or by any other person in any manner, influences or attempts to influence any decision of the Commission, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding twelve months or both.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be taken to make unlawful the giving of a reference or testimonial to any applicant or candidate for any public office or the supplying of any information or assistance requested by the Commission.

(3) Any person who, in connection with the performance by the Commission of its functions, wilfully gives to the Commission any information which he or she knows to be false or does not believe to be true, or which he or she knows to be false by reason of the omission of any material particular, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding twelve months or both.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "Commission" means the Commission, any member of the Commission, any officer of the Commission or any person or body of persons appointed to assist the Commission in the performance of its functions.

22. (1) Any member or officer of the Commission and any other person who, without the written consent of the Commission, knowingly publishes or discloses to any person, otherwise than in the performance of his or her official functions, the contents of any document, communication or information, which has come to his or her notice in the course of his or her duties in relation to the Commission, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifteen currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.
(2) Any person who knows of any information which to his or her knowledge has been disclosed in contravention of subsection (1) of this section, who publishes or communicates it to any other person otherwise than for the purpose of any prosecution under this Act or in the course of his or her official duty, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifteen currency points or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or both.

23. A prosecution for an offence against this Act shall not be instituted except with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

24. (1) The Commission may, by writing, delegate any of its functions to a District Service Commission or any other authority or officer.

(2) A District Service Commission shall, when considering any matter relating to a person employed in the Education Service, co-opt as a non voting member, a representative of the department of education in the district or urban authority of a rank not lower than Education Officer or Inspector of Schools.

(3) The Commission shall issue guidelines to be used by the District Service Commission under subsection (3) of section 56 of the Local Governments Act, 1997.

(4) Guidelines issued under this section shall be binding on the District Service Commission.

(5) Without prejudice to section 25 of this Act, the Commission shall have the right to request in writing from the District Service Commission, any information reasonably necessary for ensuring that guidelines issued under this section are complied with; and the District Service Commission shall be bound to give effect to the request.
(6) The Commission shall set aside any action taken by a District Service Commission which contravenes any guidelines issued by the Commission under this section.

(7) Before setting aside any action under subsection (6), the Commission shall give written notice to the District Service Commission pointing out the act which constitutes the contravention and giving the District Service Commission—

(a) reasonable opportunity to show cause why the action should not be set aside; and

(b) whenever practicable, giving the District Service Commission reasonable time to take necessary steps to rectify the contravention.

(8) The Commission shall render such advice to the districts as may be required regarding personnel management in the district education service.

25. A District Service Commission shall submit a report to the Commission on the performance of its functions in relation to the Education Service after every four months and whenever a report is required by the Education Service Commission.

26. The Commission may liaise and consult with other Service Commissions established by the Constitution with a view to harmonising standing orders, regulations and remuneration of public officers.

27. (1) The Commission shall from time to time consult with the Minister on matters of policy in the carrying out of its functions.
