(2) For the purposes of determining what amounts to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, the court or any other body considering the matter shall have regard to the definition of torture as set out in section 2 and the circumstances of the case.

(3) In a trial of a person for the offence of torture the court may, in its discretion, convict the person for cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, where the court is of the opinion that the act complained of does not amount to torture.

PART III—OTHER PARTIES TO THE OFFENCE OF TORTURE

8. Other parties to offence of torture.

(1) A person who, whether directly or indirectly—

- (a) procures;
- (b) aids or abets;
- (c) finances;
- (d) solicits;
- (e) incites;
- (f) recommends;

- (g) encourages;
- (h) harbours;
- (i) orders; or
- (j) renders support to;

any person, knowing or having reason to believe that the support will be applied or used for or in connection with the preparation or commission or instigation of torture commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to imprisonment not exceeding seven years or a fine not exceeding one hundred and sixty eight currency points or both.

9. Accessory after the fact to the offence of torture.

(1) A person who receives or assists another who is, to his or her knowledge, guilty of an offence under this Act, in order to enable him or her to escape punishment, becomes an accessory after the fact to the offence of torture.

(2) A person who is or becomes an accessory after the fact to the offence of torture commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to imprisonment not exceeding seven years or a fine not exceeding one hundred and sixty eight currency points or both.

(3) A wife does not become an accessory after the fact to an offence of which her husband is guilty by receiving or assisting him in order to enable him to escape punishment by receiving or assisting in her husband's presence and by his authority another person who is guilty of an offence in the commission of which her husband has taken part in order to enable that other person to escape punishment, nor does the husband become an "accessory after the fact to an offence of which his wife is guilty by receiving or assisting her in order to enable her to escape punishment.

10. Responsibility of a superior over actions of a subordinate.

A superior officer is liable for any act of torture committed by a subordinate under his or her authority and control where—

- (a) the superior knew, or consciously disregarded information which clearly indicated, that the subordinate was committing or about to commit an act of torture;
- (b) the acts committed by the subordinate concerned activities that were within the responsibility and control of the superior; and
- (c) the superior failed to promptly investigate, diligently pursue administrative and disciplinary measures to prevent re-occurrence, and cooperate with judicial authorities to prosecute the offence.

11. Right to complain.

(1) A person alleging that an offence under this Act has been committed, whether the person is the victim of the offence or not, has a right to complain to the Police, Commission or any other relevant institution or body having jurisdiction over the offence.

(2) Where a complaint is made, a prompt investigation into the complaint shall be conducted, and where there are substantial grounds to support the complaint, the police shall arrest and detain the person and accordingly charge the person with the offence he or she is alleged to have committed.

(3) Any person arrested and detained under subsection (2), shall be assisted in communicating as soon as legally possible with the nearest appropriate representative of the state of which he or she is a national or if the person is a stateless person, with the representative of the state where the person ordinarily resides.

12. Institution of criminal proceedings.

(1) Criminal proceedings under this Act, may be instituted in one of the following ways—

- (a) by a police officer bringing a person arrested with or without a warrant before a magistrate upon a charge;

- (b) by a public prosecutor or a police officer laying a charge against a person before a magistrate and requesting the issue of a warrant or a summons; or
- (c) by any person, other than a public prosecutor or a police officer, making a complaint.

(2) The validity of any proceedings instituted or purported to be instituted under subsection (1) shall not be affected by any defect in the charge or complaint or by the fact that a summons or warrant was issued without any complaint or charge or, in the case of a warrant, without a complaint on oath.

(3) Any person, other than a public prosecutor or a police officer, who has reasonable and probable cause to believe that an offence has been committed by any person under this Act, may make a complaint of the alleged offence to a magistrate who has jurisdiction to try or inquire into the alleged offence, or within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the accused person is alleged to reside or be.

(4) A complaint made under subsection (3) may be made orally or in writing signed by the complainant, but if made orally shall be reduced into writing by the magistrate and when so reduced shall be signed by the complainant.

(5) Upon receiving a complaint under subsection (3), the magistrate shall consult the local authority of the area in which the complaint arose and put on record the gist of that consultation; but where the complaint is supported by a letter from the local authority, the magistrate may dispense with the consultation and thereafter put that letter on record.

(6) After satisfying himself or herself that prima facie the commission of an offence has been disclosed and that the complaint is not frivolous or vexatious, the magistrate shall draw up and shall sign a formal charge containing a statement of the offence or offences alleged to have been committed by the accused.

(7) Where a charge has been—

- (a) laid under the provisions of subsection (1)(b); or
- (b) drawn up under the provisions of subsection (9), the magistrate shall issue either a summons or a warrant, as he or she shall deem fit, to compel the attendance of the accused person before the court over which he or she presides, or if the offence alleged appears to be one which the magistrate is not empowered to try or inquire into, before a competent court having jurisdiction; except that a warrant shall not be issued in the first instance unless the charge is supported by evidence on oath, either oral or by affidavit.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (7), a magistrate receiving any charge or complaint may, if he or she thinks fit for reasons to be recorded in writing, postpone the issuing of a summons or warrant and may direct an investigation, or further investigation, to be made by the police into that charge or complaint; and a police officer receiving such a direction shall investigate or further investigate the charge or complaint and report to the court issuing the direction.

(9) Without prejudice, nothing in subsection (7) shall authorise a police officer to make an arrest without a warrant for an offence other than a cognisable offence.

(10) A summons or warrant may be issued on a Sunday.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to affect the powers conferred upon justices of the peace by the Justices of the Peace Act.

13. Control over private prosecutions.

(1) Where criminal proceedings under this Act have been instituted, the Director of Public Prosecutions may—

- (a) take over and continue the conduct of those proceedings at any stage before the conclusion of the proceedings;
- (b) discontinue the prosecution of the proceedings at any stage; and

- (c) require the victim or the person reporting the offence—
- (i) to give him or her all reasonable information and assistance; and
 - (ii) to furnish him or her with any documents or other matters.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, any person other than a public prosecutor or a police officer, may institute criminal proceedings for any offence committed under this Act.

(3) This section shall not prejudice the mandate of the Uganda Human Rights Commission to entertain matters under this Act as cases of human rights abuse, and in such cases, the Commission shall deal with the cases as it ordinarily deals with human rights cases.

PART IV—USE OF INFORMATION OBTAINED BY TORTURE

14. Inadmissibility of evidence obtained by torture.

(1) Any information, confession or admission obtained from a person by means of torture is inadmissible in evidence against that person in any proceeding.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), such information, confession or admission may be admitted against a person accused of torture as evidence that the information, confession or admission was obtained by torture.

15. Prohibition of Use of information obtained by torture.

A person who uses information which he or she knows or ought to have reasonably known to have been obtained by means of torture in the prosecution of the person tortured, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment not exceeding two years or a fine not exceeding forty eight currency points or both.

PART V—TRANSFER OF DETAINEES

16. No transfer of persons where likelihood of torture exists.

(1) A person shall not where there are reasonable grounds to believe that a prisoner or detainee is likely to be tortured—

- (a) release, transfer or order the release or transfer of a prisoner or detainee into the custody or control of another person or group of persons or government entity;
- (b) transfer, detain or order the transfer or detention of a prisoner or detainee to a non-gazetted place of detention; or
- (c) intentionally or recklessly abandon a prisoner or detainee, in any place where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the prisoner or detainee is likely to be tortured.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to any prisoner or detainee in the custody of any public official irrespective of the—

- (a) citizenship of the prisoner or the detainee;
- (b) location in which the prisoner or detainee is being held in custody or control; or
- (c) location in which or to which the transfer or release is to take place or has taken place.

PART VI—JURISDICTION OVER THE OFFENCE OF TORTURE.

17. Jurisdiction of Uganda courts in relation to the offence of torture.

(1) The Chief Magistrates Court of Uganda shall have jurisdiction to try the offences prescribed by this Act, wherever committed, if the offence is committed—

- (a) in Uganda;

(b) outside Uganda—

- (i) in any territory under the control or jurisdiction of Uganda;
- (ii) on board a vessel flying the Uganda flag or an aircraft which is registered under the laws of Uganda at the time the offence is committed;
- (iii) on board an aircraft, which is operated by the Government of Uganda, or by a body in which the government of Uganda holds a controlling interest, or which is owned by a company incorporated in Uganda;

(c) by a citizen of Uganda or by a person ordinarily resident in Uganda;

(d) against a citizen of Uganda;

(e) by a stateless person who has his or her habitual residence in Uganda; or

(f) by any person who is for the time being present in Uganda or in any territory under the control or jurisdiction of Uganda.

18. Torture bailable by the Chief Magistrates Court.

Bail in respect of the offence of torture may be granted by a Chief Magistrate.

PART VII—GENERAL

19. Consent of DPP required for prosecution of non citizen.

A person who is not a citizen of Uganda shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this Act except with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

20. Duty to report torture.

A person who suspects or has reasonable grounds to suspect that torture is being committed by a public official, person acting in official capacity or private capacity, has a duty to report to the police, the commission, of his or her suspicion of torture.

21. Protection of victim, witnesses and persons reporting torture.

It shall be the responsibility of the State to ensure that any person including the—

(a) complainant;

(b) witnesses; or

(c) person making a complaint, whether the victim or not;

is protected against all manner of ill-treatment or intimidation as a consequence of his or her complaint or any evidence given.

22. Restriction on extradition or deportation where person is likely to be tortured.

(1) Torture is an extraditable offence.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and the provisions of the Extradition Act, a person shall not be extradited or deported from Uganda to another state if there are substantial grounds to believe that that person is likely to be in danger of being subjected to torture.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), it shall be the responsibility of the person alleging the likelihood of being tortured to prove to the court the justification of that belief.

(4) In determining whether there are substantial grounds for believing that a person is likely to be tortured or in danger of being subjected to torture under subsection (2), the court shall take into account all factors including the existence of a consistent pattern of gross, flagrant or mass violations of human rights in the state seeking extradition or deportation of the person.

(5) Where a person is not extradited or deported as a consequence of the provisions of this section, that person shall be tried in Uganda.

23. No amnesty for offence of torture.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the Amnesty Act, a person accused of torture shall not be granted amnesty.

PART VIII—MISCELLANEOUS24. Regulations

(1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations for better carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after the publication of a statutory instrument under this section, cause the instrument to be laid before Parliament.

(3) Notwithstanding the Interpretation Act, the Minister may, while exercising his or her powers under subsection (1), by statutory instrument, prescribe such fines and imprisonment as may be appropriate in the circumstances which may be in excess of the penalties prescribed by section 38 of the Interpretation Act
