CHAPTER 21

THE RECIPROCAL ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS ACT.

Commencement: 22 March, 1922.

An Act for the enforcement in Uganda of judgments made in the United Kingdom and other Commonwealth countries and the Republic of Ireland.

1. Interpretation.

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—
 - (a) “judgment” means any judgment or order given or made by a court in any civil proceedings, whether before or after the passing of this Act, by which any sum of money is made payable, and includes an award in proceedings on an arbitration if the award has, in pursuance of the law in force in the place where it was made, become enforceable in the same manner as a judgment given by a court in that place;
 - (b) “judgment creditor” means the person by whom the judgment was obtained, and includes the successors and assigns of that person;
 - (c) “judgment debtor” means the person against whom the judgment was given, and includes any person against whom the judgment is enforceable in the place where it was given;
 - (d) “original court” in relation to any judgment means the court by which the judgment was given;
 - (e) “registering court” in relation to any judgment means the court by which the judgment was registered.
- (2) Subject to rules of court, any of the powers conferred by this Act may be exercised by a judge of the court.

2. Enforcement of judgments obtained in superior courts in the United Kingdom or Ireland.

- (1) Where a judgment has been obtained in a superior court in the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland, the judgment creditor may apply to the High Court, at any time within twelve months after the date of the judgment, or such longer period as may be allowed by the court, to have the judgment registered in the court, and on any such application the court may, if in all the circumstances of the case it thinks it is just and convenient that the judgment should be enforced in Uganda, and subject to this section, order the judgment to be registered accordingly.

(2) No judgment shall be ordered to be registered under this if— section

- (a)
- (b) the original court acted without jurisdiction;
the judgment debtor, being a person who was neither carrying on business nor ordinarily resident within the jurisdiction of the original court, did not voluntarily appear or otherwise submit or agree to submit to the jurisdiction of that court;
- (c) the judgment debtor, being the defendant in the proceedings, was not duly served with the process of the original court and did not appear, notwithstanding that he or she was ordinarily resident or was carrying on business within the jurisdiction of that court or agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of that court;
- (d) the judgment was obtained by fraud;
- (e) the judgment debtor satisfies the registering court either that an appeal is pending, or that he or she is entitled and intends to appeal, against the judgment; or
- (f) the judgment was in respect of a cause of action which for reasons of public policy or for some other similar reason could not have been entertained by the registering court.

(3) Where a judgment is registered under this section— the

- (a) judgment shall, as from the date of registration, be of the same force and effect, and proceedings may be taken on the judgment, as if it had been a judgment originally obtained or entered upon the date of registration in the registering court;
- (b) the registering court shall have the same control and jurisdiction over the judgment as it has over similar judgments given by itself, but insofar only as relates to execution under this section;
- (c) the reasonable costs of and incidental to the registration of the judgment (including the costs of obtaining a certified copy of the judgment from the original court and of the application for registration) shall be recoverable in like manner as if they were sums payable under the judgment.

(4) Rules of court shall provide—

- (a) for service on the judgment debtor of notice of the registration of

- a judgment under this section;
- (b) for enabling the registering court on an application by the judgment debtor to set aside the registration of a judgment under this section on such terms as the court thinks fit; and
- (c) for suspending the execution of a judgment under this section until the expiration of the period during which the judgment debtor may apply to have the registration set aside.

(5) In any action brought in any court in Uganda on any judgment which might be ordered to be registered under this section, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to recover any costs of the action unless an application to register the judgment under this section has previously been refused, or unless the court otherwise orders.

3. Issue of certificates of judgments obtained in Uganda.

Where a judgment has been obtained in the High Court against any person, the court shall, on an application made by the judgment creditor and on proof that the judgment debtor is resident in the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland, issue to the judgment creditor a certified copy of the judgment.

4. Power to make rules.

Provision may be made by rules of court for regulating the practice and procedure (including scales of fees and evidence) in respect of proceedings of any kind under this Act.

5. Power to apply this Act to Commonwealth countries outside the United Kingdom.

Where the Minister is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the legislature of any Commonwealth country outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that country of judgments obtained in the High Court, the Minister may by statutory order declare that this Act shall extend to judgments obtained in a superior court in that country in the like manner as it extends to judgments obtained in a superior court in the United Kingdom, and on any such order being made this Act shall extend accordingly.
