35. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, no court shall issue any rule nisi operating as an interim interdict against the Government of the Union including the South African Railways and Harbours Administration or the Administration of any Province, or any Minister, Administrator or other officer of the said Government or Administration in his capacity as such, unless notice of the intention to apply for such a rule, accompanied by copies of the petition and of the affidavits which are intended to be used in support of the application, was served upon the said Government, Administration, Minister, Administrator or officer at least seventy-two hours, or such lesser period as the court may in all the circumstances of the case consider reasonable, before the time mentioned in the notice for the hearing of the application.

Failure to give a satisfactory account of possession of goods.

36. Any person who is found in possession of any goods, other than stock or produce as defined in section thirteen of the Stock Theft Act, 1923 (Act No. 26 of 1923), in regard to which there is reasonable suspicion that they have been stolen and is unable to give a satisfactory account of such possession, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to the penalties which may be imposed on a conviction of theft.

Absence of reasonable cause for believing goods properly acquired.

37. (1) Any person who in any manner, otherwise than at a public sale, acquires or receives into his possession from any other person stolen goods, other than stock or produce as defined in section thirteen of the Stock Theft Act, 1923, without having reasonable cause, proof of which shall be on such first-mentioned person, for believing at the time of such acquisition or receipt that such goods are the property of the person from whom he receives them or that such person has been duly authorized by the owner thereof to deal with or to dispose of them, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to the penalties which may be imposed on a conviction of receiving stolen property knowing it to have been stolen.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1) "public sale" means a sale effected—

- (a) at any public market; or
- (b) by any shopkeeper during the hours when his shop may in terms of any law remain open for the transaction of business; or
- (c) by a duly licensed auctioneer at a public auction; or
- (d) in pursuance of an order of a competent court.

Prosecutions in connection with gambling houses.

38. In any prosecution under any statute or under the common law for keeping or visiting a gambling house it shall not be a defence that the premises to which the charge relates—

- (a) are available only for the use of subscribers or members or a group of members, or are not available for use by the public in general; or
- (b) are used only by personal friends of the owner or occupier,

if it is proved that any such use occurs habitually.

Short title.

39. (1) This Act shall be called the General Law Amendment Act, 1955.

(2) Sections one, two and three shall not come into operation until a date to be fixed by the Governor-General by proclamation in the Gazette.
