BOARD NOTICE 31 OF 2001
Security Officers' Interim Board

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM REGARDING PROPOSED REGULATIONS ON IMPROPER CONDUCT ENQUIRIES

1. The proposed regulations published in the Gazette deal with the initiation and conducting of improper conduct enquiries as contemplated in section 20(2) of the Security Officers Act, 1987 (Act No. 92 of 1987). There enquiries are of considerable importance in the achievement of one of the objects of the Security Officers' Board, namely to ensure that the security industry acts in the public interest. The Board's regulations should provide for fair, modern and appropriate procedures to deal with allegations of improper conduct by members of the security industry.
2. It has become necessary to amend the Improper Conduct Enquiries Regulations, 1992 (referred to as "the existing regulations" in this memorandum) in respect of the matters indicated in this memorandum. In view of the number, the extent and the nature of the proposed amendments, it is appropriate from both a practical as well as a systematic point of view to replace the existing set of regulations with a new one, rather than to attempt the often problematic route of piecemeal amendment.
3. The amendments to the existing regulations are based on the need to deal with certain practical issues and questions that have been highlighted by the significant increase in regulatory activity of the Board in recent years. What might have been appropriate from a procedural and logistical point of view in, for example 1995 when there were a total of 24 enquiries held into alleged improper conduct, are clearly not appropriate in circumstances where there are in excess of 600 enquiries a year (as in 2000). It is thus necessary to supplement the existing regulations in certain respects and to provide more detailed principles to enable presiding officers to handle particular matters relating to procedure and evidence in a more expedient manner. Certain changes to terminology are proposed, inter alia, to rid the existing regulations of gender bias, the need to use "plain language" where possible and to rectify certain inelegant formulations. Amendments to the existing regulations through changes to current formulations, deletions of certain provisions or expressions as well as the insertion of new provisions, are referred to below.
4. As far as the definition clause is concerned (regulation 1), reference may be made to the following:
 - (a) the definition of "day" is inserted as well as that of "security business";
 - (b) the definition of "respondent" is changed to take account, inter alia, of the use of the concepts "partnership", "business trust" and "security business"; and
 - (c) the definition of "Board" includes a committee of Board members appointed by the Board to perform certain functions contemplated by the regulations.

5. Regulation 2 contains new principles that formalize matters concerning the appointment and designation of presiding officers and of prosecutors.

6. In regulation 3 provision is made for the particulars of a partnership, business trust and security business to be included in an affidavit containing particulars of a charge against a security officer. It is further stipulated that an affidavit does not have to contain "full" particulars of the alleged improper conduct but that, consistent with the rules of criminal procedure, "reasonably sufficient" particulars will suffice. Further changes are that a respondent who intends to plead "not guilty" will be invited to submit representations to the Registrar of the Board that may enable the Registrar to decide whether to proceed with an enquiry in regard to all the charges, to amend the charge sheet or make decisions which may generally shorten the enquiry proceedings. In addition to a "certified resolution" authorizing the representative of any security business to plead guilty, the presiding officer may also have regard to other evidence of such authorization.

7. Regulation 4 deals with the conviction by the Board of a respondent who has pleaded guilty to a charge(s). There are more detailed provisions regarding the penalty that may be imposed and the Board may also refer the matter to the Registrar so that the respondent may be summoned to appear before a presiding officer – if there is a sound reason for such a step.

8. In regulation 5 the substitution of the representative of a respondent is addressed. The existing regulations are amended to take account of the use of the many different types of business entities in use today in the security industry, including partnerships, business trusts and sole-proprietorships.

9. Regulation 6 is a new provision that provides for a respondent to require necessary particulars or further particulars of a charge in order to prepare for an enquiry. It is not clear whether the relevant provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977) are applicable in terms of the existing regulations. As a respondent should clearly have a right to such particulars, the exercise of this right is dealt with in the proposed regulations.

10. In regulation 9 the conducting of an enquiry in the absence of a respondent is dealt with. Section 20(2) of the Security Officers Act expressly provides that it will not be compulsory for a security officer to attend an enquiry. The proposed regulation 9 contains principles regarding the exercise of this right by a respondent.

11. Where a respondent tenders a plea of "not guilty" to a charge, the provisions of section 115 of the Criminal Procedure Act are made applicable (with the necessary changes). That section will allow a respondent to indicate the basis of its defence and permit the presiding officer to ask questions in clarification (which a respondent may naturally refuse to answer).

12. As far as the presentation of evidence at an enquiry is concerned (regulation 12), the following should be noted:

- (a) The provisions of section 212B of the Criminal Procedure Act are made applicable to enquiries (with the necessary changes). These provisions provide a mechanism to shorten proceedings where facts are not placed in dispute between the parties.
- (b) The provisions of the Computer Evidence Act, 1983 (Act No. 57 of 1983) are made applicable (with the necessary changes). This will enable a party to submit evidence generated by computer at an enquiry.
- (c) In terms of the proposed regulation 13, the manner in which previous criminal convictions and previous convictions of improper conduct may be proved, is simplified.

13. Regulation 16 deals with the adjournment of proceedings and adds a provision regarding the costs of an adjournment necessitated by the action or inaction of one of the party's. Any party at an enquiry may be ordered by the presiding officer to pay the other party's wasted costs in the case of an adjournment if there is a sound reason for such an order. This is an equitable measure that should prompt the Board's prosecutor as well as the respondent to be properly prepared.

14. Regulation 17 deals with the imposition of penalties. The current provision that a previous conviction of a respondent "may" be taken into account does not go far enough. A previous conviction must be taken into account. Two other factors to be considered by the presiding officer are added (regulation 17(2)). Regulation 17(3) stipulates that a fine imposed by the presiding officer and confirmed by the Board in terms of section 20(5) of the Security Officers Act, is due and payable irrespective of whether an appeal that has been lodged by the respondent. However, a respondent is entitled to furnish acceptable security in lieu of payment. If the appeal is successful the Board will repay the amount of the fine, or relevant portion thereof, with interest. This measure is proposed to deal with, inter alia, the fact that appeals should not be used merely as a device to delay payment or frustrate payment through the closing down or liquidation of the security business in question pending an appeal.

15. Regulation 18 is a new provision and deals with the practical manner in which a suspended fine may be put into operation. This may be done either at an enquiry or at proceedings initiated by the Registrar for this purpose.

16. The penal provisions in the existing regulations are amended in terms of the proposed regulation 21. It is added that to threaten or insult a presiding officer or a prosecutor will constitute a criminal offence. The giving or submission of materially false evidence is criminalized as well as a refusal to obey a lawful directive of a presiding officer. The unlawful failure by the person liable to pay a fine imposed for improper conduct will constitute an offence.

17. Regulation 23 deals with the authority of the Registrar to delegate certain powers conferred on him or her. This provision is in line with contemporary legal thinking on delegation. Delegation may only take place with the prior approval of the Board.

18. Transitional provisions are contained in regulation 24. Charges already submitted when the new regulations come into operation must be processed in terms of the new provisions. Pending matters before presiding officers must continue in terms of the new provisions – except where the presiding officer, if there is a sound reason for such a decision, rules otherwise.

19. Regulation 25 is a new provision and regulates the attendance of third parties at improper conduct enquiries.

20. Regulation 27 declares the English text to be the authoritative text of the regulations where it differs from any other text.

REGISTRAR: SECURITY OFFICERS' INTERIM BOARD

SCHEDULE

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER THE SECURITY OFFICERS ACT, 1987 (ACT NO.
92 OF 1987)

The Security Officers' Interim Board has, with the concurrence of the Deputy Minister for Safety and Security, acting on behalf of and on assignment by the Minister for Safety and Security, under section 32(1) of the Security Officers Act, 1987 (Act No. 92 of 1987) made the Regulations in the Schedule hereto.

DRAFT IMPROPER CONDUCT ENQUIRIES REGULATIONS, 2001Definitions

1. In these regulations any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act will bear the meaning so assigned to it and, unless the context otherwise indicates -

“Board” includes a committee of members of the Board appointed by the Board for the purpose of performing functions in terms of these regulations;

“charge”, in relation to a security officer, means an allegation of improper conduct referred to in section 20(2) of the Act;

“complainant” means any person who has submitted a charge to the Board;

“day” does not include a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday;

“enquiry”, in relation to a security officer, means an enquiry as the result of a charge and includes the proceedings in terms of regulation 18(2);

“party”, in relation to an enquiry, means the prosecutor or the respondent;

“presiding officer” means a person referred to in regulation 2(1);

“prosecutor” means a person referred to in regulation 2(4);

“Registrar” means a person in the employment of the Board who is designated by the Board to act as Registrar, or a person with whom the Board has entered into a contract to perform the work of the Registrar;

“respondent” means a security officer in connection with whom an enquiry is held, including a security officer who is a director of a company, a member of a close corporation, a partner in a partnership, a trustee in a business trust, or the person who acts as the responsible manager of any security business, as the case may be, in regard to which an enquiry is held and who has been cited in terms of regulation 3 as representative of such company, close corporation, partnership, business trust or security business, and any other security officer who has in terms of regulation 5 been substituted for any such representative;

“security business” means any registered security officer who or which renders a security service except a person acting only as an employee;

“serve” in relation to any document required in terms of these regulations to be served on any person, means to deliver, or offer to deliver, a copy of the document personally to such person, or at such person’s employment, business or residential address to any person over the age of 16 years that resides or is employed at such address;

respondent (if any), as well as the provisions of regulation 17(2), impose a penalty on the respondent or on the security officer represented by the respondent, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of sections 20(3) and 20(4) of the Act.

Substitution of representative of respondent

5. (1) If a representative as referred to in regulation 3(2)(a) at any time ceases to be a director of the company, a member of the close corporation, a partner in the partnership, a trustee of the business trust or a responsible manager of the security business, or is allegedly not able, due to circumstances beyond his or her control, to further act as a representative in the aforesaid capacity, or if there is another sound reason to replace the representative, the Board or someone acting on its authority may on application by the representative substitute any other person that may in terms of the definition of "respondent" in sub-regulation 1 to act as such representative, whereupon the proceedings will continue as if no substitution has taken place. Provided that if no other such person is available, the Board or someone acting on its authority must refuse such application whereupon such applicant must continue to act as such representative.

(2) The citing of a person to represent a company, close corporation, partnership, business trust or security business in terms of regulation 3(2)(a), or the substitution of any such person in terms of sub-regulation (1) of this regulation, will not relieve any such person from personal liability as a security officer in respect of improper conduct contemplated in section 20(1) of the Act.

Necessary particulars or necessary further particulars of charge

6. (1) A respondent may at any reasonable time before the commencement of an enquiry, but not less than 5 days before such commencement, in writing, request the prosecutor to furnish relevant particulars or further particulars of any matter alleged in that charge that are reasonably necessary to enable the respondent to prepare for the enquiry.

(2) The particulars must be delivered to the respondent as soon as is reasonably possible and will form part of the record of the proceedings.

(3) The presiding officer before whom an enquiry into a charge is pending may, at any time before any evidence in respect of that charge has been led, direct that particulars or further particulars duly requested in terms of sub-regulation (1) be delivered to the respondent if these particulars, which the respondent is entitled to, have not been delivered and may, if necessary, adjourn the proceedings in order that such particulars may be delivered.

Summons to attend enquiry

7. (1) The Registrar must cause a respondent, who has given notice to the Registrar that the respondent intends to plead not guilty to the charge in question, or from whom the Registrar has received no reply to the notices of the prosecutor within the relevant period, where the Registrar is satisfied that the notices have been properly served on the respondent, to be summoned under the signature of the Registrar to appear at an enquiry contemplated in section 20(2) of the Act, at a time and place referred to in the summons, and to produce any book or document so referred to which has a bearing on the enquiry and which is or is presumably in possession of the respondent.

(2) A summons referred to in sub-regulation (1) is in the form that the Board from time to time determines.

Witnesses

8. (1) The presiding officer may call any person present at an enquiry to give evidence at the enquiry.

(2) A party who wishes to call any person as a witness at an enquiry must serve a subpoena, substantially in the form that the Board from time to time determines, on such person.

(3) Any person who in terms of a provision of these regulations serves a summons or other document on any person, must draft a return of service in which the manner and time of service is set out, and certify such return of service under his or her signature.

Absence of respondent

9. The presiding officer may, on application of the prosecutor, determine that an enquiry or any part thereof commence or be conducted in the absence of a respondent if –

- (a) the respondent was properly summoned to appear at the enquiry; and
- (b) it is reasonable to assume from the information submitted to the presiding officer that the respondent is exercising, or is probably exercising, his or her right as contemplated in section 20(2) of the Act not to be present at the enquiry.

Tendering of plea and related procedures

10. (1) At the commencement of an enquiry the presiding officer must put the charge to the respondent and request the respondent to plead to the charge.

(2)(a) If the respondent pleads guilty and the presiding officer is satisfied that the respondent is, in accordance with the plea, guilty of the charge, the presiding officer must so find the respondent guilty.

(b) Where the respondent tenders any plea other than a plea of guilty, or where the proceedings commence in the absence of a respondent as contemplated in regulation 9 and the respondent has not indicated that he or she offers a plea of guilty, the presiding officer must record that the respondent has pleaded not guilty and the enquiry will proceed in accordance with these regulations.

(c) Where a respondent tenders a plea of not guilty, the provisions of section 115 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No 51 of 1977) are applicable, with the necessary changes.

(d) A respondent may at any stage of the proceedings alter a plea of not guilty to a plea of guilty, whereupon paragraph (a) of this sub-regulation will apply.

(3) No plea of guilty referred to in sub-regulation (2) may be accepted by the presiding officer from a representative in the case of an inquiry against a company, close corporation, partnership, business trust or other security business registered as a security officer, unless the representative submits to the presiding officer a certified resolution or other adequate proof of the authorisation of the representative to plead guilty.

General application of procedural law and the law of evidence, and burden of proof

11. (1) A party at an enquiry must open, put, prove and close its case, subject to the provisions of the Act and of these regulations, in accordance with the rules that according to law apply to a criminal trial in a magistrate's court, subject to the necessary changes.

(2) A respondent may, after the prosecutor has closed his or her case, apply to the presiding officer to be discharged, and the presiding officer must so discharge the respondent if the presiding officer finds that the prosecutor has not tendered evidence on which a reasonable person might find the respondent guilty.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulation (1) the respondent may be found guilty of improper conduct if the presiding officer is of the opinion that on all the evidence the prosecutor has proved its case on a balance of probabilities.

Evidence

12. (1) Subject to the provisions of these regulations evidence must at an enquiry be given orally under oath or affirmation, administered by the presiding officer.

(2) A party who has at least 7 days before the commencing date of an enquiry served a copy of an affidavit or any other document on the other party, may at the enquiry tender that affidavit or document as evidence, but the presiding officer may at the enquiry on its own initiative or on application by a party direct that the affidavit or document be not accepted as evidence.

(3)(a) If it appears to the prosecutor that any fact or facts that must be proved for the purposes of a charge at an enquiry is or are not in issue or will probably not be placed in issue, he or she may cause a notice to be served on the respondent at least 7 days before the commencing date of the enquiry setting out what that fact or those facts are and stating that such fact or facts will be deemed to have been proved at the proceedings unless notice is given that any such fact will be placed in issue.

(b) If a respondent intends to place any fact mentioned in the notice in issue at an enquiry, the respondent must at least 4 days before the commencement of the enquiry or such shorter period as may be agreed upon by the parties or allowed by the presiding officer, deliver a written notice to the prosecutor to the effect that any or all of the facts in question are placed in issue.

(c) Any fact that is not placed in issue as envisaged in paragraph (b) is, subject to paragraph (d), deemed to have been proved by the prosecutor.

(d) The provisions of sections 212B(5) and 212B(6) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No 51 of 1977) apply in respect of this sub-regulation, with the necessary changes.

(4) The provisions of the Computer Evidence Act, 1983 (Act No 57 of 1983) are applicable in regard to an enquiry, with the necessary changes.

13. (1) The conviction of a respondent of any criminal offence is prima facie proved by the mere production at an enquiry of a copy, authenticated by the Registrar, of an official document used by the South African Police Service to record or reflect a person's previous criminal convictions.

(2) The conviction of a respondent on a charge of improper conduct in terms of section 20(1) of the Act is prima facie proved at an enquiry by a certificate, signed by the Registrar, that certifies the fact of the conviction.

Record of proceedings and return of service

14. The Board must cause a complete record of the proceedings of an enquiry to be kept by such mechanical or other means deemed fit by it.

15. An affidavit whereby a return of the service of a document in terms of a provision of these regulations is affirmed, will, for the purposes of these regulations, be prima facie proof of the serving of the document in accordance with the provisions of the return.

Adjournment of enquiry proceedings and costs

16. (1) The presiding officer may at any time after the commencement of the proceedings of an enquiry, on request of a party or where a sound reason exists, on its own initiative, direct that the enquiry be adjourned to a time and place mentioned in the direction.

(2) The presiding officer may on good cause shown by a party order the other party to pay the former party's reasonable legal and other costs incurred as a result of the adjournment of the proceedings at any time and may, after considering any representations that the parties may submit, make an order as to the amount and manner of payment of such costs.

Imposition of penalties and payment of fines

17. (1) After the conviction of a respondent in terms of any provision of these regulations, no penalty contemplated in section 20(3) and section 20(4) of the Act may be imposed on the respondent before the respondent has been granted a fair opportunity to submit oral or written representations in connection therewith.

(2) In addition to any other relevant factor, the following must be taken into account by the presiding officer in the imposition of a suitable penalty contemplated in sub-regulation (1):

- (a) the previous conviction of a respondent of improper conduct in terms of section 20(1) of the Act;
- (b) the financial or other benefit or likely benefit to the respondent through the commission of the improper conduct; and
- (c) the risk posed to the public interest or the interest of any person by the improper conduct of the respondent.

(3) Where a fine has been imposed on a respondent in terms of sub-regulation (1) and has been confirmed by the Board in terms of section 20(5)(b) of the Act, the fine is due and payable to the Board on demand by the Board irrespective of the fact that the respondent has lodged an appeal as contemplated in 21(1)(c) of the Act against the conviction or the fine in question: Provided that a respondent who has lodged an appeal is entitled to furnish an acceptable bank guarantee in respect of the payment of the fine pending a decision on the appeal.

(4) Where an appeal by a respondent as contemplated in sub-regulation (3) who has paid a fine to the Board imposed in terms of sub-regulation (1) is successful or partially successful, the Board must repay the fine or part thereof, as the case may be, on demand by the respondent with interest for the relevant period calculated in accordance with the rate determined in terms of the Prescribed Rate of Interest Act, 1975 (Act No. 55 of 1975).

Suspended fines

18.(1) If a respondent has been found guilty at an enquiry and the presiding officer finds that the respondent did not comply with a condition for the suspension of a previous fine as contemplated in section 20(4) of the Act, the presiding officer may -

- (a) put the suspended fine or a part thereof into operation; or
- (b) further suspend the fine or a part thereof on appropriate conditions if there is a sound reason for such a decision.

(2)(a) If the Registrar has reason to believe that a security officer has at any time within the period of suspension failed to comply with a condition for the suspension of a fine as contemplated in section 20(4) of the Act, the Registrar may direct a prosecutor to -

- (i) cause a document with sufficient particulars of the alleged non-compliance with a condition for the suspension of a fine to be served on the security officer;
- (ii) notify the security officer that the Board intends to apply for the suspended fine or part thereof to be put into effect; and
- (iii) request the security officer to give written notice to the Registrar within the period mentioned in the notice whether the security officer intends to oppose the Board's application or not and to submit any evidence and representations in the form of an affidavit that the security officer wishes to submit.

(b) The Board may, through written notice served on the security officer concerned, put into effect a suspended fine of a security officer that has indicated to the Registrar in terms of paragraph (a) that the security officer will not oppose the application of the Board.

(c) Where a security officer has given notice to the Registrar that the security officer intends to oppose the application for putting into operation a suspended fine, or from whom the Registrar has received no reply within the relevant period, the Registrar may -

- (i) refer the matter to a presiding officer to consider and rule on the Board's application; and

- (ii) cause the security officer to be summoned under the signature of the Registrar for the purposes of considering and deciding on the Board's application.

(d) The proceedings referred to in paragraph (c) must be conducted in terms of such procedures as the presiding officer may deem to be appropriate and fair in the circumstances: Provided that an application may be considered in the absence of a security officer who fails to attend the proceedings or any part thereof without a lawful reason or gives consent that the proceedings may be conducted in his or her absence.

(e) If the presiding officer after considering all relevant facts finds that a security officer, on a balance of probabilities, did not comply with a condition for the suspension of a previous fine as contemplated in section 20(4) of the Act, the presiding officer must exercise the powers referred to in sub-regulation (1).

Deviation from regulations

19. A presiding officer may in any case where in its opinion it is reasonable and just so to do, direct, with reference to any matter in connection with procedure or evidence, with the concurrence of the parties concerned, that a provision of these regulations may be deviated from to the extent indicated by the presiding officer.

Absence of provision in regulations

20. The presiding officer may in any case where with reference to a matter of procedure or evidence no express provision is contained in these regulations, direct that the matter be regulated, with the necessary changes, in accordance with a provision of the law relating to procedure and evidence applying to criminal proceedings in a magistrate's court.

Penal provisions

21. (1) No person shall -

- (a) wilfully hinder or impede the presiding officer or any other person, at any stage of the proceedings in connection with an enquiry, in the exercise of his or her powers or the carrying out of his or her functions or duties in terms of a provision of these regulations;
- (b) threaten or insult the presiding officer or prosecutor in connection with an enquiry;
- (c) wilfully furnish information or submit evidence at an enquiry which is false in any material respect;
- (d) wilfully refuse or fail to act in terms of any lawful instruction of a presiding officer in connection with an enquiry;
- (e) after a summons has been served on him or her in terms of a provision of these regulations, without good cause refuse or fail to comply with the provisions of the summons: Provided that this prohibition does not affect the right of a respondent not to attend an enquiry as contemplated in section 20(2) of the Act;

- (f) after he or she has in terms of these regulations been called upon to give evidence at an enquiry, or a subpoena has been so served on him or her, refuse to be sworn in as a witness or to make an affirmation, or to produce a book or other document or, after he or she has been put under oath or affirmation refuse to answer a lawful question put to him or her;
- (g) fail to pay a fine imposed in terms of sub-regulation 17(1) or sub-regulation 18(1) which is due and payable by such person to the Board.

(2) Any person who contravenes a provision of sub-regulation (1) will on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.

Witness fees

22. (1) Subject to sub-regulation (2), the Registrar may out of the funds of the Board pay to any person who attended an enquiry as a witness such fees as and allowances as may from time to time be determined by the Board.

(2) The Registrar may not so pay any person any such fee or allowance, unless the presiding officer has certified that the person concerned has conducted himself or herself properly and satisfactorily as a witness or that, where the person was not called upon to actually give evidence, he or she at all relevant times held himself or herself available for that purpose or, where his or her inability to give evidence was due to circumstances beyond his or her control, that such circumstances so prevented him or her.

(3) Different fees or allowances in respect of different classes of witnesses or different circumstances or different classes of enquiries may be determined under sub-regulation (1).

Delegation

23. (1) The Registrar may, with the approval of the Board and upon such conditions as the Registrar may stipulate, in a written notice which contains sufficient particulars of the matters being delegated and of any conditions attached thereto, delegate any of the powers conferred upon the Registrar by these regulations to any employee of the Board or to any person with whom the Board has entered into a contract for the rendering of a service to the Board.

(2) The Registrar may at any time amend or revoke a delegation in terms of sub-regulation (1), or withdraw any decision made by the delegatee with regard to a delegated matter and decide the matter himself or herself, unless the decision by the delegatee has conferred a right on a third party.

Transitional provisions

24. (1) Any charge with reference to a security officer already submitted to the Board at the date of the commencement of these regulations, must be dealt with in terms of these regulations.

(2) Any enquiry pending at the date of the commencement of these regulations will be continued in terms of these regulations unless the presiding officer for a sound reason directs that the enquiry, or any part thereof, must continue in terms of the Improper Conduct Enquiries Regulations, 1992, as amended.

Attendance at enquiry proceedings

25. Unless the presiding officer for a sound reason determines otherwise, only a person who performs a function at an enquiry in terms of the Act or these regulations, is allowed to be present at such enquiry: Provided that a member of the Board or a person in the employ of the Board or with whom the Board has contracted to perform any particular work may attend an enquiry unless the presiding officer, for a sound reason, determines otherwise.

Repeal of regulations

26. The Improper Conduct Regulations, 1992, as amended, are hereby repealed.

Authoritative text

27. The provisions of the English text of these regulations will prevail in the case of a difference between the English text and any other text.

Short title and date of commencement

28. These regulations will be called the Improper Conduct Enquiries Regulations, 2001 and will come into operation on a date published by the Board in the Government Gazette.

PLEASE NOTE

The Labour Relations Act No 66 of 1995 was amended twice as indicated above. If you need the complete Act, it would be necessary to order all three, i.e. Acts Nos 66 of 1995, 42 of 1996 and 127 of 1998. The price for the complete Labour Relations Act is R15.00.

In the same way the Constitution of the RSA was amended five times, meaning that you will have to buy all six to get the complete Act. The cost for this Act is R30.00.
