GOVERNMENT OF ZAMBIA

ACT
No. 20 of 1990

Date of Assent: 17th December, 1990

An Act to amend the Constitution

[21st December, 1990

ENACTED by the Parliament of Zambia.   Enactment

1. This Act may be cited as the Constitution of Zambia   Short Title (Amendment) Act, 1990, and shall be read as one with the Constitution.   Cap. 1

2. The Constitution is amended—   Repeal of Article 4
   (a) by the repeal of Article 4.   and insertion of
   (b) by the insertion before Article 5 of the following new   new Article Article: 4A

   4A. Notwithstanding the repeal of Article 4—   Saving of existing
      (a) the institutions and the organs of the Party   institutions recognised under this Constitution shall continue   and organs to exist until the next dissolution of Parliament;   of the Party and

      (b) any party formed as a consequence of the repeal of Article 4 shall only participate in an election to the National Assembly after the next dissolution of Parliament.

3. The Constitution is amended by the repeal of Article 64   Repeal and and the substitution therefor of the following Article: replacement of Article 64

   64. The National Assembly shall consist of—   Composition of National
      (a) one hundred and fifty elected members; and   Assembly

      (b) the Speaker of the National Assembly.