INVESTMENT CENTRE AND BOARD

4. Notwithstanding section thirty-nine, the Investment Centre as constituted under the Investment Act, 1991, shall continue to exist as if constituted under this Act.

Constitution of Investment Centre
Act No. 19
of 1991

5. (1) The functions of the Centre shall be to promote, co-ordinate Government policies on, and facilitate, investment in Zambia, so as to provide a one-stop support facility to investors.

Functions of Centre

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (2) the functions of the Centre shall be to—

- (a) promote investment in Zambia;
- (b) monitor the performance of enterprises approved by it and enforce compliance with the terms and conditions of investment certificates approved under this Act;
- (c) establish and maintain institutional liaison arrangements;
- (d) assist in securing from any Ministry, government department, local authority or other relevant body any permission, exemption, authorisation, licence, bonded status, land and any other thing required for the purpose of establishing or operating a business enterprise;
- (e) keep records of all technology transfer agreements relating to investments under this Act;
- (f) provide consultancy services to investors;
- (g) collect and disseminate information on relevant laws and regulations, and technical matters, including applicable standards, specifications and quality control procedures;
- (h) undertake economic and sector studies, including market surveys, with a view to identifying investment opportunities;
- (i) register investors;
- (j) implement decisions made by the Board;
- (k) exercise all functions and powers and perform all duties which under or by virtue of this Act or any other written law are, or may be, vested or delegated to it; and
- (l) do all such things as are necessary or incidental or conducive to the functions specified in this Act.

Establishment of Board

6. (1) There is hereby established the Investment Board of the Centre which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and of being sued in its corporate name and with power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to do all such acts and things as a body corporate may by law do or perform.

(2) The provisions of the First Schedule shall apply as to the constitution of the Board and otherwise in relation thereto.

Functions of Board

7. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board shall be responsible for the affairs of the Centre.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1) the Board shall—

- (a) implement investment policies;
- (b) formulate investment promotion strategies;
- (c) establish investment guidelines for the Centre;
- (d) issue investment certificates; and
- (e) do all such things as are necessary or incidental to the better carrying out of the functions specified in this Act.

PART III*PROCEDURES FOR INVESTMENT IN ZAMBIA*Investment Certificate

8. Any person investing in a business enterprise may apply for an Investment Certificate under this Part:

Provided that in respect of the industries specified in the Second Schedule, the Board shall not issue an Investment Certificate to an investor until the investor obtains the necessary licences, authorisations, or permits from the relevant ministry or body.

Application for Investment Certificate

9. (1) An application for an Investment Certificate in the form set out in the Third Schedule shall be made to the Director-General and shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee determined by the Board.

(2) The Director-General shall, on receipt of an application for an Investment Certificate, submit the application to the Board for its consideration at the next meeting of the Board.

Issue of Investment Certificate

10. (1) The Board shall, within six weeks of receipt of an application for an Investment Certificate issue an Investment Certificate, with general or special incentives, as the case may be, in the form set out in the Fourth Schedule, if—

- (a) the application is in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
- (b) the activity planned to be undertaken by the business enterprise does not contravene any laws and regulations in force in Zambia.

(2) A decision of the Board in respect of an application for an Investment Certificate shall be communicated to the applicant, in writing, within fourteen days of the Board's decision:

Provided that a decision of the Board rejecting an application shall be accompanied by the reasons for the rejection.

11. Any applicant for an Investment Certificate who is aggrieved by a decision of the Board rejecting the application may appeal to the Minister subject to a further appeal to the High Court.

Appeal from decision of Board

12. An Investment Certificate issued under section ten shall—

Condition of Investment
Certificate

- (a) authorise the holder thereof to make all necessary arrangements for the commencement of the business enterprise described therein;
- (b) contain terms and conditions of the certificate and any general or special incentives given; and
- (c) have unlimited period of validity, subject to it being utilised within twelve months from the date of issue.

13. (1) The holder of an Investment Certificate may at any time during the validity of the certificate, apply to the Board for variation of the terms and conditions of the certificate, the incentives granted thereunder or any matter relating to the certificate.

Variation of Investment
Certificate

(2) The Board shall consider the application referred to in subsection (1) and may after negotiations, if any, grant or refuse such application.

14. (1) Where the holder of an Investment Certificate is unable to commence operations within twelve months from the date of issue, he shall, at least sixty days before the expiry of his certificate, apply to the Board for an extension of that period, giving reasons thereof; and the Board shall, if satisfied with the reasons, extend the validity for such period as he may consider reasonable.

Extension and surrender of
certificate

(2) Where the holder of an Investment Certificate decides not to continue with any project to which the certificate relates, he shall so notify the Board in writing and shall agree with the Board the terms and conditions of the surrender of the certificate with particular reference to anything done or any benefit obtained under the certificate.

(3) Where the period of twelve months from the date of issue of an Investment Certificate has expired without the holder of the certificate commencing business operations and no application for its extension has been made in accordance with subsection (2) the certificate shall lapse and shall, subject to section seventeen, be cancelled and the holder of the licence shall cease to be entitled to any benefits obtainable under the certificate.

Transfer of Investment
Certificate

15. (1) An Investment Certificate shall not be transferred to a third party without the prior approval of the Board but such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(2) Every application for approval to transfer an Investment Certificate shall be made to the Board and the Board may, within thirty days of the application, approve the application, in accordance with this Act.

Amendment
ment
Certificate

16. The Board may amend an Investment Certificate—

- (a) where some other person has succeeded to the interest in the business enterprise belonging to the holder of the Investment Certificate, by substituting for the name of the holder the name of the successor; or
- (b) where the name of the business is altered, by substituting the name so altered.

Suspension or cancellation of Investment
Certificate

17. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may suspend or cancel any Investment Certificate if the investor—

- (a) obtained the Investment Certificate by fraud, deliberate or negligent submission of false information or statements;
- (b) transfers or otherwise assigns an Investment Certificate without the prior approval of the Board;
- (c) contravenes this Act or any terms and conditions of the certificate issued to him; or
- (d) fails without reasonable cause to establish the business enterprise within the time stipulated in the certificate or any extension thereof.

(2) The Board shall, before suspending or cancelling an Investment Certificate in accordance with subsection (1), give its written notice to the investor of its intention to suspend or cancel the Investment Certificate and the grounds for the suspension or cancellation and require the investor to show cause within a period of not more than thirty days why the certificate should not be suspended or cancelled.

(3) The Board shall not suspend or cancel an Investment Certificate under this section if the investor takes remedial measures to the satisfaction of the Board within the period of thirty days referred to in subsection (2).

(4) If the Investor notified under subsection (2) fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the Board or does not take remedial measures to the satisfaction of the Board within the time specified in that subsection, the Board may suspend or cancel the Investment Certificate.

(5) Where an Investment Certificate is suspended, the holder of the certificate shall cease to be entitled to the rights and benefits conferred under this Act for the period of the suspension.

(6) Where an Investment Certificate is cancelled the holder of the certificate shall cease to be entitled to the benefits conferred under this Act with effect from the date of such cancellation and shall return the licence to the Director-General.

(7) Any person who is aggrieved by any decision of the Board under this section may appeal to the Minister subject to further appeal to the High Court.

provisions

- (a) a valid investment licence or permit, certificate of incentives or certificate of registration under the Investment Act, 1991; or
- (b) any other valid certificate or licence issued under any other written law with respect to a business enterprise recognised by the Board;

Act No. 19 of 1991

shall give written notice to that effect to the Board within six months after the commencement of this Act with a certified copy of the licence, permit or certificate, as the case may be, and the rights and benefits accruing to the holder of such licence, permit or certificate shall continue in accordance with the provisions of the Investment Act, 1991.

Act No. 19 of 1991

38. (1) After consultation with the Board, the Minister may, by statutory instrument, provide for—

Regulations

- (a) anything which by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed;
- (b) the collection of industrial data and the procedure for such collection; and
- (c) such other matters as are necessary or conducive to the better carrying out of the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Minister may, upon recommendation by the Board, by statutory instrument, amend any form set out in the Schedules to this Act.

Repeal of Act No. 19
of 1991 and savings
Act No. 19
of 1991

39. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Investment Act, 1991 is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Investment Act, 1991—

- (a) any agreement executed under that Act shall continue in force as if made under this Act;
- (b) any applications pending before the Investment Board under that Act shall be deemed to have been made to the Board under this Act;
- (c) any registration done, any other right or benefits accruing, or any liabilities suffered under that Act, other than those specified in section thirty-seven, shall continue in accordance with this Act;
- (d) any regulations made or directions given under that Act shall, unless contrary to this Act, continue in force until revoked, as if made or given under this Act.

(3) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman and the Secretary or one other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.

(4) Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed, by a person not being a body corporate, would not be required to be under seal, may be entered into or executed without seal on behalf of the Board by the Secretary or any other person generally or specifically authorised by the Board in that behalf.

(5) Any document purporting to be a document with the seal of the Board or issued on behalf of the Board shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be so executed or issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

Remuneration and allowance:

4. A member of the Board or any committee of the Board shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as the Board may determine.

Proceeding
of Board

5. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once in every three months at such places and at such times as the Chairman may decide.

(3) Upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, a meeting of the Board may be called by the Chairman; and shall be called if not less than five members so request in writing:

Provided that if the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of such notice, a special meeting may be called by the Chairman, upon giving a shorter notice.

(4) Nine members shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

(5) There shall preside at any meeting of the Board—

(a) the Chairman; or

(b) in the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman; or

(c) in the absence of the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman such member as the members present may elect for the purpose of that meeting.

(6) The Board may invite any person, whose presence is in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the Board but such person shall have no vote.

(7) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

(8) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Board or by any defect in the appointment of any member or by reason that any person not entitled so to do took part in the proceedings.

(9) The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board and of every meeting of any committee established by the Board.

6. (1) The Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, establish committees of members of the Board and delegate to any such committee such of its functions as it thinks fit.

Committees
of Board

(2) The Board may appoint the Director-General as a member of a committee established under subsection (1).

(3) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Board any committee established under subsection (1) may regulate its own procedure.

(4) A committee may invite any person, whose presence is in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the committee but such person shall have no vote.

7. (1) If any person is present at a meeting of the Board or any committee of the Board at which any matter is the subject of consideration and in which matter that person or his spouse is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity that person shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose such interest and shall not, unless the Board otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question touching such matter.

Disclosure of interest

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

8. No action or other proceedings shall lie, or be instituted against any member or member of a committee for or in respect of any act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of his functions under this Act.

Immunity of members

9. (1) The Board shall appoint, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, a Director-General who shall be the chief executive officer of the Centre, and who shall be responsible for the administration of the Centre and the implementation of the decisions of the Board.

Director-
General

(2) The Director-General may, subject to the approval of the Board, establish such organisational structures for the Centre as he may consider necessary for the discharge of the functions of the Centre.

(3) The Director-General shall attend meetings of the Board and may address such meetings, but shall not vote on any matter:

Provided that the person presiding at any meeting of the Board, may for good cause, require the Director-General to withdraw from such meeting.

(4) Paragraph 7 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to the Director-General.

Secretary
