Cap. 107

Offender to report to an authorised officer

306C. Upon making an order for community service, the court shall order the offender in respect of whom the order is made to report forthwith to an authorised officer in the area community service will be performed.

Failure of offender to comply with community service order

306D. (1) If at any time during the community service period it appears to the court that the offender has failed to comply with the requirements of the community service order, the court may issue summons requiring the offender to appear at the place and time specified therein or may issue a warrant of arrest.

(2) A summons or warrant shall direct the offender to appear or to be brought before the court by which the community service order was made.

(3) If it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the offender has failed to comply with any of the requirements of the community service order, the court may—

(a) vary the order to suit the circumstances of the case;

(b) impose on the offender a fine not exceeding three hundred penalty units; or

(c) cancel the order and send the offender to prison for the term the offender is liable, subject nevertheless to a reduction of the number of days, if any, for which community service has already been performed.

306E. Where an offender has been ordered to undergo community service on conviction by an original court but has been sentenced to imprisonment by a subsequent court for another offence committed during the period of community service, the following shall apply:

Commission of further offence

- (a) the subsequent court may add to the sentence imposed a further term of imprisonment which might have been passed by the original court and cancel the order of community service;
- (b) in making the sentence the subsequent court may take into account the period of community service served in reduction of the additional imprisonment;
- (c) where the original court was the High Court and the subsequent court is the subordinate court, the subordinate court shall send the copy of the proceedings to the High Court and on receipt, the High Court shall proceed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section;
- (d) where the original court was a subordinate court, and the subsequent court is the High Court dealing with the matter at first instance or on appeal or otherwise, the High Court shall proceed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section;
- (e) where both the original court and the subsequent court are subordinate courts, the subsequent court shall proceed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section;
- (f) where a subsequent court has convicted the offender of an offence, that court may pass the sentence other than imprisonment and order the offender to continue undergoing community service.
