- (a) no prosecution for any offence under any written law is instituted with regard to the property;
- (b) no claim in writing is made by any person; and
- (c) no proceedings are commenced within six months from the date of seizure, for the forfeiture of property;

the Commissioner shall apply to the Court upon the expiration of the period of six months for an order of forfeiture of that property.

(2) The Court shall not make an order of forfeiture under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) the Commissioner has given notice by publication in the Gazette and in one national newspaper to the effect that property which has been seized under this Act shall be liable to vest in the State if it is not claimed within three months; and

- (b) three months after the giving of the notice under paragraph (a) the property remains unclaimed.

(3) Where a claim in writing is made by any person that is lawfully entitled to the property seized under this Act that the property is not liable to forfeiture under this Act the Commissioner may order release of the property to the claimant if satisfied that there is no dispute as to ownership of the property and that it is not liable for forfeiture.

(4) Where a claim is made against property seized under this Act and the Commissioner finds that—

- (a) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the property;
(b) there is insufficient evidence to determine the ownership of property;
(c) the Commissioner is unable to ascertain whether the property is liable to forfeiture or not;

the Commissioner shall refer the claim to High Court.

19. (1) For the purpose of determining whether any property belongs to, or is in the possession or under the control of any person, the High Court may upon application by the Commissioner—

Property tracking and monitoring
