Authority to issue
bank notes
and coins

17. (1) The right to issue banknotes, coins and other forms of the currency considered appropriate in the Republic vests exclusively in the Bank.

(2) The Bank may, where the Board considers it necessary and in consultation with the Minister, issue coins and banknotes of any denomination for purposes other than monetary use and may designate those coins and banknotes to be legal tender within the Republic and every such issue shall be published in the Gazette.

(3) A person, other than the Bank, who issues in the Republic notes or coins or other documents or token which are payable to bearer on demand or purports to be the currency of the Republic or the currency of any other country commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one million penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or to both.

Legal tender

18. (1) The Kwacha and ngwee is the sole legal tender in the Republic.

(2) A tender of payment of money shall be legal tender if it is in notes, coins or such other form considered appropriate by the Bank and is made or issued by the Bank under this Act.

(3) A banknote or coin issued as legal tender by the Bank and not withdrawn from circulation shall be accepted, at the banknote or coin face value, in payment of all domestic transactions.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding five million penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(5) The Bank may impose an administrative sanction for a violation of this section.

19. The Bank shall, in consultation with the Minister, determine by regulation the face value, measures, weights, designs and other features of a banknote and coin that is legal tender.

Currency features

20. (1) The Bank shall—

(a) print banknotes and mint coins;

(b) ensure the security and safekeeping of unissued banknotes and coins;

(c) undertake the custody and destruction of plates, dies and withdrawn banknotes and coins; and

(d) issue currency in a form it considers appropriate.

Currency production safekeeping and inventory

(2) The Bank shall directly administer the currency reserve inventory and ensure the regular supply of banknotes and coins in order to meet the currency requirements of the economy.

21. (1) Subject to this section, the Bank may, on the request of any person, exchange, without charge or commission, banknotes and coins that are mutilated or damaged.

Currency exchange

(2) The Bank may determine and publish in the Gazette the conditions under which mutilated or otherwise damaged banknotes may be exchanged by the Bank.

(3) The Bank shall not, except in its sole discretion, exchange banknotes or coins that are perforated, cut, clipped, broken or otherwise marked or defaced or the design of which is not recognisable.

22. (1) The Bank shall withdraw and destroy unfit currency.

Management of unfit currency

(2) For the purposes of this section, “unfit currency” means currency that has lost its security features and includes soiled, defaced, illegible or perforated currency and currency that is mutilated in any other way.

23. (1) A person shall not be entitled to recover from the Bank the value of any forged, lost, stolen banknotes or coins.

Exchange of forged, lost, or stolen banknotes or coins

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Bank shall be liable for any loss, suffered by a person, arising out of the negligence or misconduct of a member of the Board, staff or agent of the Bank committed in the course of that person's official duties.

Accounting treatment of
issued

24. The aggregate amount of circulating banknotes and coins shall be noted in the accounts of the Bank as a liability of the Bank, which liability shall not include banknotes and coins in the currency reserve inventory.

Currency
recall

25. (1) The Bank may call in, and withdraw from circulation, any banknotes or coins that are circulating within the Republic, and may issue other banknotes or coins of equivalent amounts in exchange.

(2) The Minister shall, by statutory instrument, prescribe the manner of withdrawal from circulation of banknotes or coins under subsection (1), and the period during which the banknotes or coins shall be presented for exchange, and the offices of the Bank where the banknotes or coins are to be presented.

(3) At the end of the exchange period under subsection (2), banknotes and coins called in for exchange shall cease to be legal tender.

Counterfeit notes and coins

26. (1) The Bank shall cause the enforcement of any law, in the Republic, relating to the forgery of notes or counterfeiting of banknotes and coins.

(2) A certification by a duly authorised staff of the Bank that an item in question is or is not genuine shall be prima facie evidence of that fact in any legal proceedings in the Republic.

(3) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law relating to the forgery of banknotes or counterfeiting of banknotes and coins, the court shall, in addition to the penalty imposed, order that a banknote, coin, article, instrument, machinery or equipment used in the commission of the offence be surrendered to the Bank for destruction or disposal.

PART IV MONETARY POLICY

Monetary Policy
Committee

27. (1) There is established a Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank.

(2) The Monetary Policy Committee shall formulate the monetary policy of the Republic on behalf of the Bank.

(3) The Bank shall implement the monetary policy formulated by the Monetary Policy Committee under subsection (2) in order to achieve and maintain price stability.

(4) The formulation and implementation of the monetary policy under this section shall be conducted autonomously without any external influence.

(5) The Monetary Policy Committee shall regulate its own procedure.

28. (1) The Monetary Policy Committee consists of the following members:

Composition

Publication
of minutes

30. The Monetary Policy Committee may, after each meeting, publish minutes of the meeting in a manner that the Bank considers appropriate.

FINANCIAL STABILITY

Financial Stability
Committee

31. (1) There is established a Financial Stability Committee for the Bank.

(2) The Financial Stability Committee shall formulate the macro-prudential policies of the Republic on behalf of the Bank.

(3) The Bank shall implement the macro-prudential policies formulated by the Financial Stability Committee under subsection (2) in order to achieve and maintain financial stability.

(4) The formulation and implementation of the macro-prudential policies under this section shall be conducted autonomously without any influence.

(5) The Financial Stability Committee shall regulate its own procedure.

32. (1) The Financial Stability Committee consists of the following members:

Composition
of Financial Stability
Committee

- (a) the Governor, who shall be the chairperson;
- (b) the Deputy-Governors;
- (c) a representative of the Secretary to the Treasury;
- (d) a representative of the authority responsible for regulating and supervising the securities market;
- (e) a representative of the authority responsible for regulating and supervising the pensions and insurance market;
- (f) two persons appointed by the Board, who shall—
  - (i) not be members of staff of the Bank, members of the Board of Directors or public officers;
  - (ii) be persons of recognised professional, academic standing and experience in the fields of economics, banking, finance or other fields relevant to central banking;
  - (iii) hold office for a period of three years; and
  - (iv) be remunerated at a rate that the Emoluments Commission may, on the recommendation of the Minister, determine;

  - (i) responsible within the Bank for research or economic policy;
  - (ii) responsible within the Bank for financial stability; and
  - (iii) responsible within the Bank for legal matters.

(2) The Deputy-Governor responsible for financial stability shall be the vice-chairperson of the Financial Stability Committee.

(3) A person appointed under subsection (1) shall —

(a) before performing the functions of a member of the Financial Stability Committee, take an oath or affirmation, and sign the Form set out in the Third Schedule; and

(b) during the performance of the functions as a member of the Financial Stability Committee, be subject to the Code of Conduct set out in the Fourth Schedule.

(4) The members of the Financial Stability Committee under subsection (1) (c), (d) (e) and (f)—

(a) shall be subject to the provisions relating to disqualification and removal from office of the members of the Board; and

(b) may be removed from office for contravention of the Code of Conduct set out in the Fourth Schedule.

Cooperation with other supervisory authorities

33. The Bank may, for the purposes of promoting financial stability under this Part—

(a) enter into arrangements to co-operate with a supervisory authority and co-ordinate financial stability measures with the supervisory authority; and

(b) obtain any information or document from, or share any information or document with, any other supervisory authority if the Bank considers it necessary that the information or document be so obtained or shared.

Publication
of Financial Stability
report

34. (1) The Financial Stability Committee shall, after each meeting, publish in a manner the Bank considers appropriate, a statement on the financial stability of the Republic.

(2) The Financial Stability Committee shall, at least once a year and in addition to the statement under subsection (1), publish a Financial Stability Report.

PART VI

BANK'S RELATIONSHIP WITH GOVERNMENT

Advisor to Government

35. (1) The Bank shall act as an economic advisor to the Government on matters within the competence of the Bank.

(2) The Minister may request the Bank to render advice and furnish reports on matters relating to the objectives and functions of the Bank.

36. (1) Subject to this Act, the Bank is the banker to the Government on terms and conditions that may be agreed between the Bank and the Minister. Banker to Government

(2) Despite subsection (1) the Government—

- (a) may appoint a financial institution or bank to act as its agent in the execution of its banking transactions;
- (b) may maintain cash balances with, and generally use the services of, a financial institution or bank; and
- (c) shall provide information to the Bank on the cash balances maintained in banks and other financial institutions.

37. The Bank—

- (a) is the fiscal agent for the Government; and Fiscal Agent
- (b) may serve as a depository or financial intermediary for any international financial institution of which the Republic may be a member.

38. The Bank shall not advance funds to the Government except as provided in section 39 and on terms and conditions that may be agreed between the Bank and the Minister. Advances to Government

39. (1) Subject to section 38, the Bank shall not directly or indirectly, at any time, give credit to the Government by way of short term advances, purchases of securities in a primary issue, or any other form or extension of credit that exceeds fifteen percent of the ordinary revenue of Government in the previous financial year. Limitations on lending to Government

(2) If, in the opinion of the Bank, the limitation provided for in subsection (1), is likely to be exceeded, the Bank shall submit to the Minister a report stating the—

- (a) details of the amounts then outstanding of the funds advanced and credit facilities extended by the Bank and the Bank's holding of securities under subsection(1);
- (b) causes which are likely to lead to such limitation being exceeded; and
- (c) Bank's recommendation to forestall or otherwise remedy the situation.

(3) The Bank shall continue to make further reports and recommendations to the Minister on the matters under subsection (2), at intervals of not more than six months until a time that, in the Bank's opinion, the situation has been rectified.

(4) Where the limitation provided for in subsection (1) is exceeded, the Bank shall immediately advise the Minister of that fact and shall not allow any further increase, whether directly or indirectly, in the aggregate amount of the funds advanced and credit facilities extended by the Bank and the Bank's holding of securities under subsection (1).

(5) For purposes of this section, "short term advances" means lending to Government for a period not exceeding twelve months.

Acquisition of securities issued or guaranteed
by Government

40. (1) The Bank may, in the Bank's implementation of monetary policy—

(a) operate in the secondary market by purchasing and selling debt securities issued by the Government; and

(b) issue and trade its own debt instruments in the market.

(2) Except for purposes of implementation of monetary and financial stability policies, the Bank may not purchase, for its own account, debt securities issued or guaranteed by the Government or other debt securities prescribed by the Bank.

Management of public debt

41. The Bank shall act as an agent for the Government in the payment of interest and principal debt in respect of the issue and management of the public debt of the Republic, when authorised by the Minister or by law to do so, and on terms and conditions that may be agreed by the Minister and the Bank.

Consultation
and exchange
of information

42. (1) Without prejudice to the powers of the Bank to formulate and implement monetary policy and to any other provisions of this Act, the Bank shall consult with the Minister, when necessary, to ensure co-ordination between monetary and fiscal policies.

(2) The Minister may, in writing, convey to the Bank the general economic and financial policy of the Government.

(3) The Bank and the Government shall agree the terms on which the Government or any Government department or agency shall supply any financial and economic information or documentation that the Bank may reasonably require for the purpose of discharging its functions under this Act.

PART VII

BANK'S RELATIONSHIP WITH FINANCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

43. The Bank may operate accounts for banks and financial institutions on terms and conditions, that the Board may determine.

Banker to banks and financial institutions

44. (1) The Bank may purchase from, sell to, discount and rediscount, from banks or financial institutions on terms and conditions that the Bank may determine, any of the following:

Bank's service to financial service providers

- (a) bills of exchange and promissory notes drawn or made of types approved by the Bank;
- (b) Government securities; and
- (c) any other instrument approved by the Bank.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Bank may grant advances to banks or financial institutions, whether by loans or overdrafts, for periods not exceeding one hundred and eighty days and secured by—

- (a) instruments specified in subsection (1);
- (b) warehouse warrants and documents of title issued in respect of staple commodities or other goods duly insured, except that the Bank shall determine the maximum percentage of advances in relation to the current value of the commodities or goods;
- (c) holdings of any assets the Bank is permitted to buy, sell, or deal in under this Act; or
- (d) securities issued or guaranteed by the Government.

(3) An advance under subsection (2) shall not be made available to a bank or financial institution if the total of advances made by the Bank to the bank or financial institution cumulatively is equal to or exceeds one hundred percent of the deposit liabilities of that bank or financial institution.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), the Bank may in exceptional circumstances—

- (a) grant advances or contingent commitments to banks or financial institutions if, in the opinion of the Bank, the advance or commitment is necessary having regard to the financial stability and the financial condition of the bank or financial institution; or
- (b) subject to subsection (5), grant advances or contingent commitments to a bank or financial institution in distress if, in the opinion of the Bank, the bank or financial institution—

- (i) does not constitute a systemic risk to the financial sector at market price; and
  - (ii) constitutes a systemic risk to the financial sector at a price that the Bank, after consultation with the Minister, considers appropriate.
- (5) The Bank may grant advances and contingent commitments under subsection (4)(b) if—
- (a) the Bank is satisfied that the bank or financial institution in distress shall be able to repay the amount granted, including any additional costs, and that adequate arrangements regarding the repayment have been made or;
  - (b) in case of subsection (4) (b) (ii), the Minister—
    - (i) agrees, in writing, with the advance or commitment within twenty-four hours of a proposal having been submitted by the Bank to that effect; and
    - (ii) has confirmed, in writing, that separate funds or debt securities in bearer form with interest at market rates shall be made available by the Government to cover the advance or full amount of the commitment provided in the event that it is realised.
- (6) Despite this section, the Bank may, without providing any reason, refuse to discount any of the instruments under subsection (1).

Publication
of Bank's rates

45. The Bank may fix and publicly announce the rates for discounts, re-discounts, advances, loans or overdrafts.

Cash reserve requirement for financial service
provider

46. (1) The Bank may, by Gazette and by written notice to the main office of each financial service provider in the Republic, prescribe—

- (a) the reserves required to be maintained by a financial service provider, including marginal required reserves, against deposit and other similar liabilities of a bank that may be specified for this purpose; and
- (b) the proportion of reserves a financial service provider may maintain by way of cash holdings or deposits in a prescribed account with the Bank, or both.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Bank may prescribe different reserve ratios for different classes of deposits and other similar liabilities and may specify the method of their computation.

(3) The reserve ratios specified under subsection (2) shall be uniform for all financial service providers in the same class but the ratios may differ between different classes of financial service providers and a prescription of, or change in, the required reserve ratios shall be effective as prescribed.

(4) A financial service provider may, subject to the charges prescribed by the Bank, withdraw the required reserves held with the Bank for the purpose of meeting its existing liabilities and may further serve as a basis for the clearance of cheques and the settlement of balances among financial service providers, except that the bank shall repay the withdrawal within the period prescribed by the Bank.

47. (1) The Bank may, by Gazette—

- (a) determine the minimum ratio of liquid assets which a financial service provider is required to hold;
- (b) determine the minimum reserve balance which a financial service provider shall maintain with the Bank;
- (c) determine the class or classes of assets which qualify as liquid assets under this section; and
- (d) specify the class or classes of liabilities against which the ratio requirement may be calculated.

Minimum liquidity asset ratios and reserve
requirements

(2) A financial service provider shall, where the Bank at any time increases any of the ratios under subsection (1) (d), be given a specified period in which to comply.

(3) The Bank may require a financial service provider to furnish information that the Bank may consider necessary to satisfy itself that the financial service provider concerned is complying with this section.

(4) The Bank may, where the Bank holds a balance in an account for a depositor who is subject to a regulation under subsection (1)(a) or (b), pay interest on the balances, on terms and conditions, that the Bank considers appropriate.

(5) A financial service provider shall, where a financial service provider that is subject to subsection (1) (a) or (b) fails to maintain a balance in the financial service provider's account with the Bank sufficient to comply with that financial service provider's duty under that subsection, pay to the Bank daily interest calculated on the amount that the financial service provider's balance is deficient at the rate determined by the Bank for that purpose.

(6) The Bank may impose on a financial service provider that fails to maintain required reserves in the appropriate ratio prescribed under this section a penalty rate determined by the Bank on the amount of the deficiency.

(7) A penalty rate under subsection (6) is payable to the Bank on the date specified by the Bank and may be recovered by deduction from any balance held by the financial service provider with the Bank.

Disclosures
by financial
providers

48. (1) The Bank may, by Gazette and a notice in writing to the main office in the Republic of a financial service provider, determine the manner of disclosure to the public of —

- (a) the effective annual interest rate payable in respect of deposits made with the financial service provider;
- (b) the terms of obtaining credit including the effective annual interest rate payable in respect of the credit obtained; and
- (c) fees, commissions and other charges payable.

(2) The Bank may apply the requirements under subsection (1) to a financial service provider whose principal objective is the extension of credit to the public generally or to a participating group, during any calendar year.

(3) A notice issued under this section shall come into effect on a date specified in the notice, which shall be a date not earlier than five working days after the issue date, except that the Bank may, in the notice, differentiate among financial service providers in respect of the items set out in subsection (1), depending on the nature of the business.

(4) A financial service provider that is in breach of the disclosure requirements under subsection (1) may be required to pay to the Bank a penalty, for each violation, as prescribed in the Gazette.

Consultation
with financial
providers

49. The Bank may, at any time, consult with financial service providers on any matter that the Bank considers necessary.

Money market and foreign exchange
market

50. (1) The Bank may issue regulatory statements for the purposes of regulating, developing, or maintaining orderly conditions or the integrity of, the money market, the foreign exchange market or the market for the derivatives related to the currencies, securities and other financial instruments traded in these markets.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the regulatory statements may be issued to—

- (a) licensed participants or dealers in the money market, foreign exchange market and market for derivatives; and
- (b) ensure orderly dealings in the markets under paragraph (a).

51. The Bank may perform regulatory and supervisory functions and exercise powers that may be assigned to, or conferred on the Bank, by the Banking and Financial Services Act, 2017 or any other written law.

Regulation and supervision of financial service providers Act No. 7 of 2017

PART VIII

INTERNATIONAL RESERVES AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE OPERATIONS

52. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, the Government shall, in consultation with the Bank, formulate the exchange rate policy of the Republic.

Exchange rate policy

(2) The Bank shall implement the exchange rate policy.

53. (1) The Bank shall, on the terms and conditions that the Board may determine, hold the official international reserves which shall consist of the following:

Maintenance of official international reserves

- (a) gold;
- (b) foreign exchange in the form of banknotes or coins or bank balances held abroad, denominated in currencies and located in countries that the Board may approve;
- (c) the facilities to make reserve tranche purchases from the International Monetary Fund;
- (d) holding of special drawing rights;
- (e) bill of exchange and promissory notes denominated and payable in foreign currencies and in places as the Board may approve;
- (f) treasury bills and other securities denominated in foreign currencies, issued or guaranteed by foreign governments and payable in places that the Board may approve;
- (g) securities issued or guaranteed by international financial institutions specified by the Board; and
- (h) other international reserve asset that the Board may determine.

(2) The Bank shall endeavour to maintain the official international reserves under subsection (1), at a level which is adequate for achieving the functions of the Bank under this Act.

Bank
depository of external assets

54. The Bank shall be the sole depository of official international reserves and may designate agents with whom these reserves may be held.

Authorised transactions
and limitation of contracting parties

55. (1) Despite the generality of section 5 (t), the Bank may, for purposes of maintaining international reserves and conducting foreign exchange operations—

- (a) buy, sell or deal in gold coins or bullion or other precious metals;
- (b) buy, sell, or deal in foreign exchange, using any of the instruments commonly used by a bank;
- (c) purchase and sell money market instruments and other securities issued or guaranteed by foreign governments or international institutions;
- (d) open and maintain accounts outside the Republic;
- (e) open and maintain accounts and act as agents or correspondents for the institutions under subsection (2) (c) and (d); and
- (f) enter into any other transaction authorised by the Board.

(2) The Bank shall, for the purposes of subsection (1), contract with the following institutions:

- (a) the Government and its boards and agencies;
- (b) a financial service provider operating within or outside the Republic;
- (c) a foreign central bank or monetary authority and its agencies;
- (d) a foreign financial institution;
- (e) a supranational institution; and
- (f) other institution that the Board may determine to be appropriate.

PART IX

REGULATION AND SUPERVISION OF PAYMENT SYSTEMS

Mandate over payment system

56. (1) The Bank shall designate, manage, regulate and supervise the payment system in order to—

- (a) ensure its proper functioning so as to preserve the safety, stability, integrity, transparency, accountability, effectiveness and efficiency of payment, clearing and settlement systems and the financial system as a whole;
- (b) ensure fair, open and equitable access to the payment system; and
- (c) oversee payment, clearing and settlement systems and their participants.

(2) The Bank may operate accounts for payment service providers on terms and conditions that the Board may determine.

57. The Bank may perform regulatory and supervisory functions and exercise powers that may be assigned to, or conferred on the Bank by the National Payment Systems Act, 2007 or any other written law regulating payment systems.

Regulation and supervision of payment system Act No.1 of 2007

PART X

GENERAL PROVISIONS

58. (1) The Bank may require a person to furnish any information and data that the Bank may specify to perform the Bank's functions under this Act.

Furnishing of information

(2) The Bank may publish in aggregate form classes of persons determined in accordance with the nature of their business the information or data to be furnished under subsection (1), except that the Bank shall not publish information that would disclose the affairs of a customer of a financial service provider unless the consent of that customer has been obtained in writing.

(3) Where the Bank believes that any information or data supplied by any person for the purposes of subsection (1), is, or maybe, inadequate or inaccurate, the Bank may, by notice in writing to that person, require that information or data to be audited by an auditor approved by the Bank.

59. A person appointed under this Act or employed by the Bank shall take and subscribe before a Commissioner of Oaths an oath or affirmation of secrecy as set out in the Fifth Schedule of this Act.

Oath or affirmation of secrecy

- (b) “counterfeit coin” means any coin, other than a coin of the Bank, resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for a coin of the Bank, and includes a coin of the Bank prepared or altered so as to resemble or pass for coin of a higher denomination;
- (c) “counterfeit banknotes” means any banknote, other than a banknote of the Bank, resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for a banknote of the Bank, and includes a banknote of the Bank prepared or altered so as to resemble or pass for a banknote of a higher denomination;
- (d) “counterfeiting” includes the making of or a reproduction of a banknote or coin or a counterfeit by means of a computer, a photocopy machine or a photographic technique, minting, stamping, casting or milling or any other process intended to create a reproduction of a banknote or coin;
- (e) “produce” or “reproduce” includes the production or reproduction of a banknote or coin by means of printing, photography, photocopying or any other forms of copying, enlargement, drawing or computer techniques, or the publishing of the banknote or coin so produced or reproduced or making of any tooling, process, method, metals or things, that would be used in the production or reproduction of the banknote and coin; or

- (f) a banknote and a coin shall be regarded as defective if it has been wrongly manufactured and would accordingly be unfit for issuance as a proper banknote and a coin in accordance with the standards of manufacture applied by the institution entrusted with the manufacture of banknotes and coins for the purposes of this Act.

68. (1) A regulated entity or their respective officers and agents or any other person to whom sections 48 and 60 on disclosure of information are applicable commits an offence if they—

Offences relating to non-disclosure of information or furnishing of false information

- (a) supply false information or fail to furnish any information required by the Bank; or
(b) furnish false information to the public.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding five years, or to both.

69. A person who commits an offence under this Act for which no penalty is provided is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding five years, or to both.

General penalty

70. (1) The Bank may impose an administrative penalty on a person for failure to comply with a provision of this Act which is not an offence.

Administrative penalties

(2) An administrative penalty shall not exceed the amount prescribed by the Minister, by statutory instrument, for each day during which the failure continues.

(3) An administrative penalty shall be paid to the Bank within the period prescribed by the Minister.

(4) If a person fails to pay an administrative penalty within the stipulated time under subsection (3), the Bank may, by way of civil action in a competent court, recover the amount of the administrative penalty from that person as an amount due and owing to the Bank.

71. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or unincorporate body, with the knowledge, consent or connivance of a director, manager or shareholder of that body corporate or unincorporate body that director, manager or shareholder is liable, on conviction, to the penalty specified for the offence.

- Regulations      74. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Bank, make Regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Despite the generality of subsection (1), the Regulations may provide for any contravention that a person is liable to an administrative penalty as prescribed or to a fine not exceeding one million penalty units or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding ten years, or to both.
- Repeal of Act No. 43 of 1996 and savings and transitional provisions      75. (1) The Bank of Zambia Act, 1996, is repealed.
(2) Despite subsection (1), the Sixth Schedule applies to the savings and transitional arrangements of the Bank.
(3) Despite subsection (1), a person who immediately before the commencement of this Act, held office as a member of the Board shall hold office as a member of the Board for a period of six months after which the Minister shall appoint the members of the Board in accordance with this Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE
(Sections 3(2) and 7(9))

ADMINISTRATION OF BANK

PART I

BOARD OF BANK

1. (1) The seal of the Bank shall be such device as may be determined by the Board and shall be kept by the Governor or an officer designated by the Governor. Seal of Bank

(2) The Board may use a wafer or rubber stamp in lieu of the seal.

(3) The affixing of the seal shall be in accordance with a resolution of the Board and shall be authenticated by a minimum of two members of the Board.

(4) A contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate, would not be required to be under seal, may be entered into or executed without a seal on behalf of the Bank by the Governor, Deputy-Governor or another member of the Board generally or specifically authorised by the Board in that behalf.

(5) Any document purporting to be a document under the seal of the Bank or issued on behalf of the Bank shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be so executed or issued, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

2. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a member of the Board under section 7(1)(b) shall hold office for a term not exceeding three years and may be re-appointed for a term not exceeding three years. Tenure of office and vacancy

(2) The office of a member of the Board becomes vacant if that member—

(a) dies;

(b) is adjudged bankrupt;

(c) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board of which the member of the Board has had notice, without the prior approval of the Board;

(d) resigns from office;

(e) is removed from office in accordance with this Act;

(f) is legally disqualified from performing the functions of a member; or

(g) is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law and is sentenced to imprisonment for a term exceeding six months without the option of a fine within a period of five years preceding the appointment.

(3) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a member of the Board shall, on the expiration of the period for which the member of the Board is appointed, continue to hold office until another member of the Board, is appointed to succeed that member, but in no case shall the further period exceed three months.

(4) The Minister shall, where the office of a member of the Board becomes vacant, appoint another person in place of the member of the Board who vacates office, and the members so appointed shall hold office for a term not exceeding three years.

Proceedings of Board

3. (1) Subject to this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once every three months at a place and time that the Board may determine.

(3) The Chairperson may call a meeting of the Board on giving notice of not less than fourteen days and if not less than one-third of the members of the Board so request, in writing, except that if the urgency of a particular matter does not permit the giving of that notice, a special meeting may be called on giving a shorter notice.

(4) Four members of the Board shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Board.

(5) There shall preside at a meeting of the Board—

(a) the Governor;

(b) in the absence of the Governor, the Vice-Chairperson;
and

(c) in the absence of the Governor and the Vice-Chairperson, a member of the Board that the members of the Board present may elect from among themselves for the purpose of that meeting.

(6) A decision of the Board on any question shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members of the Board present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have, in addition to a deliberative vote, a casting vote.

(7) The Board may invite any person whose presence is, in its opinion desirable, to attend and to participate in the deliberation of a meeting of the Board, but that person shall have no vote.

(8) The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board and of every committee of the Board.

4. (1) The Board may constitute committees that it considers necessary and delegate any of its functions to these committees.

Committees

(2) The Board may appoint as members of a committee, persons who are, or are not members of the Board, except that at least one member of a committee shall be a member of the Board.

(3) A person serving as a member of a committee shall hold office for a period that the Board may determine.

(4) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Board, a committee may regulate its own procedure.

5. (1) A member of the Board, other than the Governor, or a member of a committee of the Board shall be paid allowances that the Emoluments Commission may, on the recommendation of the Minister, determine.

Allowances

(2) There shall be paid from the Funds of the Bank reasonable travelling, transport and subsistence allowances for members of the Board or members of a committee of the Board when engaged in the business of the Bank, at rates that the Emoluments Committee may, on the recommendation of the Minister, determine.

6. (1) A person who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board at which any matter is the subject of consideration, and in which matter that person or that person's relative or associate is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare that interest and shall not, unless the Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to that matter.

Disclosure and conflict of interest

(2) A disclosure of interest made under subparagraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) A person who contravenes this paragraph commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

7. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by or on behalf of the Bank, otherwise than in the course of the duties of that person, publish or disclose to any other person, the contents of any document, communication or information, which relates to, or which has come to the knowledge of that person in the course of that person's duties under this Act.

Prohibition of publication or disclosure of information to unauthorised persons

(2) A person who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

Immunity

8. An action or other proceeding shall not lie or be instituted against a member of the Board, the Monetary Policy Committee, the Financial Stability Committee, a committee of the Board or a member of staff of the Bank for, or in respect of, an act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance, of any of the powers, functions or duties conferred under this Act.

PART II

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Determination of net profits

9. (1) The net profits of the Bank for each financial profits year shall be determined in accordance with best international accounting standards after—

(a) allowing for the expenses of operations of the Bank for that year;

(b) making provision for —

(i) bad and doubtful debts, depreciation of assets and contingencies;

(ii) pensions, gratuities and other benefits for its employees; and

(iii) other matters which are consistent with the functions of the Bank.

(2) The unrealised exchange gains will not be included in the determination of net profits.

General
reserve fund

10. (1) The general reserve fund of the Bank continued and maintained in accordance with the repealed Act is continued in existence as if established and maintained in accordance with this Act.

(2) The Bank shall, at the end of each financial year of the Bank, transfer to the fund —

(a) thirty-five per centum of the net profits of the Bank as calculated in accordance with paragraph 9, where the balance in the general reserve fund is less than three times of the Bank's authorised capital; or

(b) twenty per centum of the net profit of the bank as calculated in accordance with paragraph 9, where the balance in the general reserve fund is three times the Bank's authorised capital, or more.

(3) The Bank may increase the total amount of the general reserve fund.

(4) Subject to subparagraph (2), thirty-five percent of the remainder of the net profits for the financial year shall be applied to the redemption of any securities issued by the Government and transferred to the ownership of the Bank under section 4(5).

(5) Subject to paragraph 9, the balance of the net profits for the financial year remaining after all deductions under subparagraphs (2) and (4) have been made shall be paid to the Government as soon as practicable after the completion of the financial audit at the end of the financial year.

(6) A deduction authorised under subparagraphs (2) and (4) shall not be required to be made or a payment under subparagraph (5) shall not be made if, in the judgement of the Board, the assets of the Bank are, or after the deduction or payment shall be, less than the sum of its liabilities and paid-up capital.

11. (1) Any net unrealised gains in any financial year of the Bank arising from changes in the valuation of its assets or liabilities in, or denominated in, gold, special drawing rights, foreign currencies, or other financial instruments as a result of any change in the values or exchange rates of gold, special drawing rights, foreign currencies or other financial instruments in terms of the domestic currency shall be credited to a revaluation reserve account.

Treatment of unrealised gains or losses on certain assets or liabilities

(2) Any net unrealised losses in any financial year of the Bank arising from any changes in the revaluation of foreign denominated assets and liabilities shall be set off against any credit balance in the revaluation reserve account at the end of the financial year.

(3) Where after the offset under subparagraph (2), the revaluation reserve account results into a deficit, the deficit shall be charged against the profit and loss account for the year, except if this is insufficient to cover the losses, despite any other provisions of the Act, the Government shall issue to the Bank negotiable or nonnegotiable interest bearing government securities only where non-issuance of the securities shall result in the Bank's assets being less than the sum of its capital and liabilities.

(4) The securities under subparagraph (3) shall be delivered to the Bank within the prescribed period from the date of certification of the accounts by the auditor and the interest payable on the securities shall be equal to the interest that the Government pays on securities of one year maturity if those securities are not outstanding, the interest on whatever other form of Government indebtedness whose maturity is closest to one year.

- (5) Any credit balance in the revaluation reserve account at the end of each financial year of the Bank shall be applied first, on behalf of the Government, to the redemption of all securities issued under subparagraph (3) and outstanding, and credit balance, if any, shall be retained in the account to offset future unrealised losses.
- (6) A credit or debit shall not be made to the revaluation reserve account except in accordance with this paragraph.
- 12. (1) Where the Bank incurs a net loss during a financial year, the loss shall be charged to the general reserve fund and if the general reserve is inadequate to cover the full amount of the loss, the balance of the loss shall be carried forward to the general reserve fund.
- (2) The Government shall, on the request of the Board and within one month after submission of an audited financial statement by the Bank confirming the balance of the accumulated losses, deliver to the Bank's funds, negotiable securities dated and bearing market related terms and conditions or foreign exchange in amounts that is necessary to maintain the Bank's assets equal to or more than the sum of its capital and liabilities.
- 13. The Bank shall, within a period of thirty days after the last business day of each quarter —
- (a) prepare and publish in the Gazette a return of its assets and liabilities as at the close of business on that day; and
- (b) deliver a copy of the return to the Minister whenever so required.
- 14. The financial year of the Bank shall be a period of twelve months ending on 31st December.
- 15. (1) The Bank shall cause to be kept proper books of account and other records relating to its accounts.
- (2) The accounts of the Bank shall be audited annually or whenever necessary by the Auditor-General or an auditor appointed by the Auditor-General.
- (3) The Auditor-General's fees shall be paid by the Bank.
- 16. (1) As soon as practicable, but not later than one hundred and twenty days after the end of the financial year, the Bank shall submit to the Minister a report concerning its activities during that financial year.

(2) The report referred to under subparagraph (1) shall include information on the financial affairs of the Bank and there shall be appended to that report—

- (a) an audited statement of financial position;
- (b) an audited statement of comprehensive income; and
- (c) such other information as the Minister may require.

(3) The Minister shall, not later than seven days after the first sitting of the National Assembly next after receipt of the report referred to under subparagraph (1), lay the report before the National Assembly.
